PLAN WEDDING AT OAK KNOB

Miss Dorothy Butler To Marry Fendale Man Saturday

The lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward James Butler, at Oak Knob, will be the scene Saturday of the marriage of their daughter, Miss Dorothy Butler, to Duncan McGeechay, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McGeechay, of Fendale. The ceremony is to be performed at 3 p. m. by Rev. Robert Marcus Atkins, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, officiating.

Miss Butler will be attended by her sister, Miss Kathryn Butler, as maid of honor. Miss Kathryn will be in charge of the event from Mrs. Harbor, where she is in her second year in the school of literature, science and the arts, at the University of Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. McGeechay, a brother of the bridegroom, will act as best man. These two will be the only attendants.

The bride will be gowned in white tulle, the dress fashioned with a light bodice and bouffant skirt, short in the front and long in the back, the only trimming being a velvet bow on the shoulder.

Her face veil will be caught with orange blossoms at each side and pearl strand under her chin, and will form a kind of canopy over her shoulders. She will carry white roses and baby's breath.

Miss Kathryn will wear peach colored tulle, made after a fashion similar to the bride's gown with a close fitting bodice and bouffant skirt. She will carry varicolored dahlias.

A tea for the guests, who will number about 35, will follow the ceremony, after which the bride and bridegroom will be escorted to the south, for a fortnight at home afterwards at their apartment in Dearborn.

Miss Alice Vliet, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Vliet, of Brown street, who is teaching this fall in Mr. Clemens, was at home over the week-end.

WEDDING HELD IN DETROIT

Miss Eleanor Malow Marries Robert Marshall Halstead

Of particular interest to Bloomfield and Birmingham society is the news of the wedding Saturday evening of the bride, Miss Eleanor Malow, of Detroit, to Mr. Robert Marshall Halstead, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn D. Halstead, of Lone Pine road. The ceremony was performed at 4:30 p. m. by Rev. O. C. Krohn, officiating.

The bride was gowned in a Chanel model of ivory transparent velvet with a deep neck outlined with rose point lace and a train falling from the shoulders, covered with the tulle veil. A cap of rose point lace, fashioned with orange blossoms confined the veil, and Miss Malow's bouquet was of lilies of the valley and carnations.

Miss Malow was married on a train following the ceremony, after a fortnight's absence in Asheville, N. C. Mr. and Mrs. Halstead will be at home at 8736 Goethe avenue, Detroit.

A small reception and dinner at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Robinson, at the Seminole avenue, followed the ceremony. After a fortnight's absence in Asheville, N. C., Mr. and Mrs. Halstead will be at home at 8736 Goethe avenue, Detroit.

MRS. LOREN ROBINSON LEAVES FOR COAST
Mrs. Loren Robinson, of Oakland avenue, will be leaving for the coast with her mother-in-law, Mrs. William Robinson, and her three children, Mary Elizabeth, Billy and Bobby, leaving tomorrow for San Francisco, California. Shain, of Pierce street, are entertaining a small tea for Mrs. Robinson this afternoon, at the former's home on Brown street.

BIRMINGHAM WOMEN WILL GIVE BENEFITS

Parties On Week's Program For Student Loan Fund

Benefit parties for the Student Loan Fund will take place on a large part of the social activity of Birmingham next week. These parties, arranged through the efforts of Mrs. Louis Hascall, of north Wood avenue, president of the fund, and Mrs. Clinton Sears, of 1040 Madison avenue, vice president, provide one of the largest, and most enjoyable, social events in Birmingham. They will be held throughout Birmingham and several of them will be going on each day.

Proceeds from the parties will be toward the fund which Birmingham provides to help her students through college. Money from the fund is loaned to students graduating from the Baldwin High School, and is paid back at their convenience. The fund has proved successful since it was started several years ago.
