

Hold Wat Starting Gun

Stage Is Set For World Series Of Equine Events Tomorrow In Bloomfield Hills

All the entries are in, the boxes are taken, and everything is in readiness for the biggest social and sporting event of the season in Bloomfield Hills, the eighth annual Bloomfield Open Hunt races which will be held tomorrow over the regular course on the E. P. Hammond and Walter O. Briggs farms.

COUZENS HITS DRY LAW AS IMPOSSIBILITY

Senator James Couzens, of Bloomfield Hills and Birmingham, was the chief speaker at the Monday noon meeting of the Rotary club. He was preceded by short vocational talks by Rotarians Alfred LaBelle, book store proprietor, Dr. George P. Reynolds, surgeon, and E. L. Mansson, dentist.

GENERAL PUBLIC TO SEE BLOOMFIELD OPEN HUNT

The Executive has been asked to announce that the Bloomfield Open Hunt races at the club tomorrow are for the general public as well as club members. Officials of the organization wish to correct the erroneous impression that the events are only for members of the club. Admission to the races is by ticket procurable at the club up until the date of the events.

Southfield Votes Oct. 31

Two Important Issues To Be Decided By Township Electors

Southfield Township today is preparing for the special election of Oct. 31, which will decide two important issues which have long been a matter of contention.

WORK IS STARTED ON NEW HIGHWAY

Work is under way today on the construction of the pavement for South boulevard in the northern part of Bloomfield Township. The award of contracts yesterday to the Schaefer, Thompson contracting firm by the township.

CONCRETE BUILDING CO. OFFERS TO BUILD

A job of concrete building is being offered by the Concrete Building Co. for the construction of a building on the corner of 12th and 13th streets in the city.

WATER COUNTRY DRIVING

A water country driving tour is being organized for the coming week. The tour will include a visit to the waterfalls and lakes of the region.

Clément Taken After Illness

LAST RITES ARE HELD

After an illness of only one week, Hugh B. Clément, architect and prominent Birmingham resident, died Sunday at the Mercy Hospital, Pontiac. Mr. Clément's death, due to a growth in his brain, came as a surprise as he had been in splendid health until this illness overtook him.

POSTMASTER ASKS CO-OPERATION TO OBTAIN FIRST CLASS RATING

With the advancement of the Birmingham Post office from second to first class at the next meeting, practically a certainty today, hindrances to the improvement of the service here are being removed as far as possible.

FIGURES SHOW GAIN OF VILLAGE POST OFFICE

During 1916, 1917 and 1918, the Birmingham post office averaged four classes of mail damages and losses through the mails and five requests for tracing orders for mail.

TWO KILLED IN CRASH

Mother And Daughter Dead, Father Dying, After Train Smashing

A mother and her daughter are dead today and the father is being treated in the hospital following a wreck last night in which a northbound passenger train crashed into an automobile containing three persons, at the intersection of the tracks and the street.

ASPIRATIONS FOR NEW WORK

Perry Urges Filing Of All Improvement Requests Before Dec. 1

A request is issued today by the village engineer to all persons seeking street improvements for their property to have their petitions filed with the village clerk immediately so action may be taken before the new budget is prepared.

BONDS WRITTEN FOR NEW SCHOOL

Bonds for the work on the new Quarton School, Chesterfield, have been written and approved by the firm of Bingham, Sparks & Bingham.

FLINT MAN ARRESTED IN HILLS AS DRUNK DRIVER

Failure to notice the traffic light at W. 12th street and Highland road resulted Tuesday in the arrest of Elmer Roth, 2607 Johns street, for driving a car into a ditch.

Committees City Government Form Advocated

RED CROSS MEETS FOR NEW DRIVE

Officers and directors of the Oakland County chapter of the American Red Cross will be named for the coming year at a meeting held Tuesday at the Welfare Building at Pontiac in preparation for the annual drive to start Nov. 1.

REEL BOARD HEARS LEAD

Auto Head Addresses 100 At Annual Banquet Here

Before an audience of 97 local and nearby business and professional men, at the Fifth Annual Birmingham Real Estate Dinner last night in Puyath Hall, Fred T. Reel, president of the Oakland County Realty Board, addressed the group.

75 Workers To Start Campaign For $6,000 In Birmingham

With next Sunday set as the date for the start of the M. C. A. drive in Birmingham and the Birmingham Oakland County, approximately 75 general agents will be on the road.

WOULD GIVE INSPECTORS POWER TO ENTER VILLAGE RESIDENCES

A study of the authority for firemen to enter homes in the village is being made today by Village Attorney Charles H. Ogden following the committee meeting held Monday.

TESTS TAKEN OF WATER HERE

Tests of the water in southern Birmingham are being made today but no ban has been ordered, as the water is being treated.

FEW CHANGES

Five changes in the charter were needed, he pointed out. The new township will follow the important items in the present charter. The changes were made to the charter to make it more in line with the government of this county.

FRANKLIN MILLS

Special sale on the Franklin Mills. The sale will include a large quantity of goods at a special price.

Continued on Page 2