

The Ideal Spot for Your Country Home

Oakland County, of course, in the beautiful Franklin Valley, south of Maple Road and close to the Oakland Hills Country Club.

Here, at Franklin Village, you will find the hills you love—beautiful rolling country cut through by winding roads.

Franklin Village is ideally situated—secluded, yet accessible from Detroit and in the very heart of the country club district. It is carefully restricted and building sites range from one-third acre to two acres in size. Prices are very attractive, whether you purchase for building or investment.

HART SPEAKER IN FIRST ASSEMBLY

Baldwin Principal Tells Of Schools' Duties In Coming Year

"An atmosphere of work produced in Baldwin high school and teachers are commenting generally on the way their pupils are getting down to work," Principal Melvin C. Hart stated at the opening of the first assembly program of the year in the high school auditorium last Friday.

"The majority of the students while a few were retaining under-achievement," he said in the assembly. "Approximately 60 new students entered, several returning for post-graduate work, while some returned after dropping out a year or two ago," he said.

"We must do our best to satisfy the different types of pupils and everything done and out of the classroom must contribute to their learning. We are charging a high rate of tuition to the pupils attending this school from outside the district, therefore we must maintain such standards that the students, parents and taxpayers will feel the tuition is justified."

Rodger Brown, president of the Senior class, Philip Henry, football captain, and Jack Savage, sales manager of the Baldwinian staff, all gave short talks. The two former pleaded in turn for better class and team spirit, while the latter announced plans for Baldwinians, Miss Mae Brumstead directed the gathering in the auditorium.

STUDENT PAPER ISSUED IN HILLS

Cranbrook Students Start To Narrate Records of Activities In School

Last Saturday marked the publication of the first copy of the "Cranbrook," official publication of the Cranbrook School for Boys. The "Cranbrook" which was originally "Cranbrook" in design in the school carries out the original idea. The paper will be published several times a year and is being edited by a committee for each issue.

The first issue contains a brief foreword on the purpose of the "Cranbrook" and a letter of thanks to Mr. and Mrs. George G. Booth, donors of the school. The remainder of the magazine comprises news and school news, athletics, a page of school yells and songs, and a page of athletic drawings by Dr. William O. Stevens, head-master.

The paper is mimeographed on the school office machines. Eventually it will be printed, but the printing establishment has not as yet been installed. The paper is bound-together in magazine form, with a wood-block design on the cover.

The editing committee for the first issue follows: Ralph Thomas, Editor; Davock, Charles Monday, Editor; Edward Anderson, Frank Ward, Arthur Sempliner, Fred Thomas, Editor-in-Chief; Nancy B. Thomas, Baldwin Public Librarian; Davock is the son of H. N. Davock of Birmingham; the remainder of the staff are Pontiac, Grosse Ile, and Detroit boys.

Teachers Report On Summer Work

Reports on the summer work of the teachers of Birmingham were given at the general meeting of the teachers Monday afternoon. Every school in the village was represented by teachers studying at various points. Miss Mayme Bieble, of the Adam School attended Ypsilanti; Miss Alfreda Purchase of the Harman school studied at the Marquette Normal; Principal Melvin C. Hart of Baldwin High School attended Columbia University; Miss Eleanor Haack, from the Hill School attended the Madison school; Miss Margaret McEwell, representing the Pierce School studied at the State Normal College at Ypsilanti.

Stoll Addresses Cranbrook Boys

Last Saturday evening, Albert Stoll, Jr., of Bloomfield court, conservation editor of the Detroit News, and formerly connected with the state conservation department, gave an illustrated talk to the Cranbrook students. Moving pictures of Isle Royale, commercial fishing, and hunting, pictures with which Mr. Stoll is very familiar, were shown.

BALDWIN P. T. A.'S TALK OF FUTURE PROGRAM

Following the general Teachers' meeting, Monday afternoon, the Baldwin teachers met with Mrs. R. B. McCutcheon, temporary chairman of the Baldwin Parent Teachers' association, to answer a questionnaire in regard to a future P. T. A. for the high school. The organization was discontinued about a year ago and whether it will be revived depends upon the results of the questionnaire, according to Mrs. McCutcheon. The results have not been made public yet.
