NEW BAPTIST CHURCH TO BE BUILT AT ONCE

The announcement, the result of several years' planning on the part of members of the First Baptist Church...

The new church, we plan, will be the most modern possible," said Mr. Bunyan today.

The building is designed to take advantage of the view from West Maple avenue...

When completed, the new church will rank first as the most beautiful edifice in the community, said Mr. Bunyan.

USE OF CIVIC LAND AS FIRE SITE FAVORED

(Continued From Page 1) it on a promptly bought and paid for, and the best thing we can do, to my mind, is to build it there.

"I think that the village fathers, both past and present, are to be congratulated on the way the village center has been and is being developed."

ROTARY CLUB ADDRESSED BY H. PARK MAYOR

(Continued From Page 1) minds of the average American, has greatly deepened a majority of people presume that an office is sought merely to provide "something" for the office seeker's personal gain.

"But things are different in Highland Park. Down there we who are filling the public offices are not trying to prove to our citizens that we are but their representatives nor are we trying to gain their friendship through the money which we spend that money."

DEAN UPHOLDS MODERN YOUTH

(Continued From Page 1) Mexicans. "But after all," said Dean Uphold, "a large part of church work is missionary work, isn't it? There are people in Detroit and every other town who need converting as much as the Indians in New Mexico."

The reverse of the present pendulum swing toward material worldliness has already started, he contended, and just living are combining to bring people to the real thing—money is not the be-all and end-all of creation.

MAY SETTLE WATER RATES

Action is expected to be taken on the question of individual water meters in multiple dwelling houses next week.

Petition to restrain the annexation proceedings was filed with the Circuit Court before Judge Frank L. Covert, Aug. 10, and is addressed to the city of Royal Oak.

In Which Mr. and Mrs. Quail and Family Became Happy

For a little while she was, indeed happy. Then, one day, about two weeks ago, her little heart began to pulsate rapidly, and fear crept into her mind.

On and on she went, day after day, until she was nearly as happy as a child. Then, one day, she was again unhappy.

JUST A FEW REMARKS ABOUT A SILVER CUP AND A BULL'S HORNS

IF, during your travels in the vicinity of West Maple and Woodford avenues, more particularly in front of the Maple avenue display window of the Birmingham Hardware store, you should see one or more chaps gathered, each apparently swelled up and smiling, you may rest assured that they are members of the Birmingham Exchange club.

The object referred to is a large silver silver cup, the trophy which was won by the Exchanges this year in the annual Rotary-Exchange Golf Tournament.

COUZENS' BLDG. WAITS ACTION ON WEST MAPLE

(Continued From Page 1) ing. "We cannot afford to put up a building such as this one would be, without being literally sure of our ground," Mr. Couzens said.

When the width of west Maple avenue has been decided upon, the building located in accordance with the line, work will go forward on the Couzens building, Mr. Couzens said.
