Flower Show Arouses Interest in Village

Considerable interest has been aroused in Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills in the flower show to be held Saturday at "Westwind Farms," the home of Mrs. Edward Askin, on the Countryside club of Orzard and Pine lakes. Admission to the show will be free, and competition is open to all amateur growers. Entries will be accepted up until 11 o'clock on Saturday. If the weather is inclement, the show will be held indoors. Everyone interested has been cordially invited. Tea will be served in the afternoon, under the direction of Mrs. Francis Smith, Mrs. Norbert Kulsavage, Mrs. Abram Scampner and Mrs. J. A. Jossman.

100 PERSONS EXPECTED AT FAMILY REUNION

Approximately 100 persons are expected at the Millman family reunion to be held Saturday at "Park Southfield and Elm" Maple avenue. Members of the family from Flat Rock, Rockwood, Detroit, Lansing, Stambert, Grand Rapids, Owosso, Flint and Pontiac, as well as from Birmingham, are expected at the affair.
