PLAN START OF PROGRAM FOR PHYSICAL ED.

one to count 10 points toward a perfect score. According to school standards, it will be necessary for each student to pass eight of these tests, attaining grade of 80 percent, to complete the course.

Junior high school and tennis leagues in the form of competition between the Adams and Baldwin schools, will lead the fall activities until the basketball season opens. Basketball on the same basis as last year, and a volleyball league are expected to hold the interest of students.

Mr. Van Winkle has announced that Francis Cooke, Adams school principal, and Merlyn Smiley, manual arts teacher, will have charge of athletics in the Adams School. As yet it is not known who will manage these sports at Baldwin.

Physical education will be in the form of 10 physical tests, each

GRID SCHEDULE IS ANNOUNCED

The schedule of varsity games to be played by the Baldwin grid-ers this coming season is announced today. The first game in the schedule takes part tomorrow at 4 p. m. at Harnum field when the Maroon and White meets Berkley.

The schedule is as follows:

Sept. 16—Berkley, here.

Sept. 22—Mr. Clemens here.

Sept. 30—Rochester, here.

Nov. 24—Royal Oak there.

MAROONS FACE BERKLEY TEAM

Practice Game Is Scheduled Tomorrow On Home Grounds

Training for the first game of the football squad of the Baldwin High School under the coaching of George F. Johnson.

Berkley, which the Maroon and White will face on the home field at 4 p. m. tomorrow may afford the team strong opposition, said the coach. The impression that this contest was any way easier than others scheduled, is corrected by Johnson who says that with many positions occupied by inexperienced men, who perhaps get their first taste of real football, there will be a chance tomorrow to demonstrate his ability in a game.

Probable lineup, the coach says, will include Elmer Root at center; Capt. Phillip Henry and Ray Mix, possibly Carl Hilly and Clyde Wood at guard positions; Roderick Cox, Albert Vasa or John Palmer as tackles; Roger Brown, Ralph Schwartz, Robert Lyon or Milton Bertous at end positions; Douglas Allen at fullback or possibly Dunham; Herman Schwartz at half back; Floyd Doherty at one quarterback; Milton Thompson or George Cooney as the other.

Two scrimmages against the Berkley team were held this week, the first on Tuesday afternoon and practice is planned today. A light game and tackling, linemen drill, backfield footwork, football fundamentals, kicking and signal practice.

The main problem seen by the coach is to build a line from new material. The backfield will be light and speedy, he says. Tomorrow to give him more complete knowledge of his men.

BROWN LEADS H. S. SENIORS

Clyde Wood Is Vice-President After Annual Meeting

Senior class officers are announced today following their election Tuesday at a meeting at Baldwin High School at which approximately 500 students voted.

Rodger Brown, gaining the majority vote over four other nominees, was elected class president, while Clyde Wood, who was next in the balloting was appointed vice-president. The other two students who were honored are Marion Quarton, secretary and L. E. Liska, treasurer.

Officers elected will continue in the positions to which they were appointed until the graduation of the class in June.

Miss Emily Walker and George Johnson were the two elected at athletic events.

Both Miss Hodges and Mr. Berndt are new to the Birmingham schools this year.

MUSIC CLASSES GET UNDER WAY

Band Practicing Regularly To Play At Football Games, Other Athletic Events

That musical education in the Birmingham schools is progressing can not be doubted, according to members of this year's musical faculty.

Miss Vera Hodges, vocal teacher, has at present 23 boys and 50 girls enrolled in boys' and girls' glee clubs. Nothing definite has been done as yet on junior chorus, but the glee clubs are well under way with their practice.

A. W. Berndt, band and orchestra leader, has enrolled 35 students in his band and orchestra. The high school band this year will be separate from the Adams band, as will the orchestra. Mr. Berndt plans to get both organizations out for public appearances this semester, the band will play at athletic events.

ADAMS' NINTHS WILL COMBINE

Class Officers Elected; "Pop" May Be Worn By Fresh In Future

The ninth grade of the Adams School decided to combine its two classes, at suggestion of Francis Cooke, principal, into one united class with its officers picked from both A and B grades, at its class meeting Tuesday.

The following officers were named: Neil Welch, president; Bill Foster, vice-president; Leonard McCrea, secretary; Edith Gaskill, treasurer. Mr. Cooke and Miss Scott were elected advisors for the semester.

Mr. Cooke pointed out that the two classes would provide better class spirit, more fun at parties, and a better choice for the two classes to try to get the class, by reason of its position as a freshman class "spot," the type of green cap worn by university fresh.

SCOUT COUNCIL PLANS MEET

Program For Fall Overnight Camp Will Be Discussed Monday

Next Monday evening at the Community House the Boy Scout Council will have a special meeting at which a representative from each troop committee, each scoutmaster, and each assistant will attend according to notice received from Commissioner L. L. Stanton yesterday.

The meeting will be held to discuss the fall overnight camp next month, and this year's fall inter-troop contest. The latter, although indoor event, as it has, for three years, will differ from some recent ones in that the most badge test-camp school for Monday evening will be deferred until the third Monday of next month.

Notes on meetings held follow:

Troop 1, Presbyterian Church. The greater part of the meeting was occupied by plans for organization for the coming year. General activities were laid before the troop by Scoutmaster L. B. Gibbons, and his assistant, L. I. Smith. The time remaining was used in playing games. There were 18 scouts present.

Troop 4, Baldwin High School. The meeting was spent mainly in discussing plans for the coming overnight camp and this year's fall inter-troop contest. Scouts Cruickshank and Shell were presented with Tenderfoot badges.

Troop 3, Adams School. Re-election of officers formed this meeting's work. Jack Thatcher was made scribe, and Joseph Huston became quartermaster. Frank Smith became patrol leader of the Eagle patrol. There were 19 scouts at the meeting.

Plan Movies

Plans are being made today by the scout troop, B. of which Howard Grull is scoutmaster, to raise funds by presenting a moving picture Oct. 31 in the high school auditorium. An additional tent will be bought with the money. A larger outdoor program also is being planned, it is reported from the troop. Following out this program will be an outdoor meeting next week and an overnight hike is planned about Oct. 1.

Two trophies are held by troop B. 3, who have in their possession a cup for being the most advanced group in the village. The former award is held by the winning troop for six months. The Bacon patrol of the troop holds the pennant for being the best all around patrol.

SENIOR GROUP STARTS DRIVE

All new officers today held position in the Senior Washington group following the first meeting of the organization last Thursday. The same officers were elected group last year. They are: George Cooney, president; Elizabeth Bragg, vice-president; Roger Toothaker, secretary; Miss Evangeline Pug-
