DRUNK DRIVER PAYS $50 FINE

Royal Oak Youth Enters Plea Of Guilty; Stephenson Makes Arrest

Pleading guilty to a charge of driving while under the influence of liquor, Robert Skidmore, 23 years old, 606 Hillside avenue, Royal Oak, paid a fine of $50 in Justice Malcolm Hunt's court here Friday in preference to spending 30 days in jail.

Skidmore was arrested early Friday morning after a chase on north Woodward avenue by Patrolman George Stephenson whose attention was attracted to the car when it started on a zig-zag course.

A $10 bill recently observed in New Orleans bore the inscription in red ink: "This is the last of $50,000, spent on good liquor, fast women and slow horses in New Orleans."

Postmaster Takes First Full-Time Leave In 5 Years

James W. Cobb, Birmingham postmaster, is back at his desk again today after his first full-time vacation in the five years that he has been in charge of the postoffice. Although Mr. Cobb has taken occasional short vacations in the past, this year was the first time he could be spared from the office for the full 30 days every postmaster is allowed yearly. He spent the vacation at his summer home at Square Lake, Mrs. Cobb is expected home from there today.
