CHIROPRACTOR GIVEN STATE BOARD POST

Dr. Ross Riddell, 316 Baldwin road, has been appointed to the first state board of registration in chiropractic.

(Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to The Eccentric) CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 22.—When Champeen Tunney and Jack Dempsey crawl under the ropes here tonight for their big brawl it will be the twenty-sixth time two men have fought for the world heavyweight boxing championship.

The return bout between Tunney and Dempsey will also be the third time two men have met twice for the heavyweight title.

All but three of the fights have been held in America. The greatest ones, New York and Philadelphia, and the smallest, such as Shelby, Mont., and Las Vegas, N. M., have been sites of big fights.

THE DAYBOOK OF A NEW YORKER

By BURTON RASCOE Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to The Eccentric NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—The following paragraph is often seen in the personal columns of daily newspapers here:

AN GIRL, needing a friend, advice or shelter may apply to Miss Young, 17 Beekman Place.

The horse on Beekman place refuses admission to no one. Drug addicts, women of the streets, graduates of reform schools, girls of all classes in all kinds of trouble come to Miss Young and avail themselves of all she has to offer.

Not a really wealthy woman, Miss Young is aided in her social work by her church and by the many wealthy people of whom she is an intimate friend.
