SCOUT HEADS TOPLAN RALLY

Details Of Annual Affair Will Be Worked Out Tonight

Detailed plans for the annual Fall Boy Scout Rally will be made today at 8 p. m. in the Community House at a meeting of the Birmingham Council and scout leaders, according to announcement by Lloyd J. Stanley, scout executive.

The rally is to be held Oct. 6, starting with a large bonfire and roast in the field south of the Community House, and ending with a stunt program in the Baldwin High School, Mr. Stanley said. All old scouts are invited to attend the affair, Mr. Stanley said, and a special effort will be made for a large attendance.

WOOSTER TELLS OF TUNNEY FIGHT

Birmingham Man Entertains 'No Doubt' As To Who Is Champion After Chicago Bout

"The better man won," so says James Wooster, 201 Poplar avenue, who, with Mrs. Wooster, witnessed the fight at Soldiers Field, Chicago, last Thursday night when Gene Tunney retained his championship over Jack Dempsey. "There should not be any doubt as to who was champion at the end of that fight," the Dempsey of today was not the Dempsey of that night, Billy Mike at Benton Harbor.

Mr. Wooster witnessed both these fights, as well as many other ones famous in boxing history. He recalled the Mike fight. "Charles Miller and I drove two days to see the fight and it took only two minutes for Dempsey to knock him cold. Today Tunney is coming, and Dempsey is going, it seems to me.

Seats Were Good

"We had good seats, in spite of the jokes made about any and all of the seats there, and we could see every blow that was struck. Tunney is better now than he was a year ago when he became champion. He's faster and he has a better punch. But what a lot of punishment Dempsey can take!"

Although the seventh round was undoubtedly Dempsey's, Mr. Wooster maintains it was his only win. Even then, however, Dempsey would not have had things so much to himself, if Tunney had not tried to mix gloves.

"Tunney told Gibbons before they went into the seventh that he had before, Tunney, however, saw an opening and so did Dempsey, and Tunney went down."

As to the dispute over the length of time Tunney was down, Mr. Wooster said he thought Tunney could have arisen and wanted to work and the count went to five, but his manager, in a loud tone, told "Gene" to take a count. "It's true that the time keeper counted before he waved Dempsey back to the ring, but there was no time, that any man who could use foot work and kick the terror's pants, lost his senses, and it seems to me that they were right."

Bill Saxes Dempsey

Mr. Wooster said that only the round saved Dempsey in the fourth round, when, he believes, he was as near out as he was in the tenth, compared Tunney with Corbett, whom he has seen fight.

"I think Tunney is as fast a man as Gentleman Jim." He's the most cow-headed fellow I ever saw. Nothing worries him, or, if it does, he doesn't show it.

Not so much money was bet on this fight as on previous ones, Mr. Wooster believes, because of the widespread rumor that Tunney would let Dempsey win, "and if he had not come out of it in the seventh, they would have had plenty of grounds for thinking so."

BANK MAKES PRIZE AWARDS

lines for three inmates, all having to do with thrift. The limiters and the lines that took first place follow:

Old Scrooge was a miserly crank. Had his money in a bank. One day he was robbed.

"I deserve it," he said. "It should have been kept in the bank. Don't spend every cent of your pay! We'll put it in the next 'next' day!"

When the ones who are spared the lines were called.

By laying a few dollars away.

"My God! How your savings will grow!" said a clever young fellow named Jim.

"You'll be in a while, and you could not have to lean on a hoe. And Miss Peters in taking the first prize for the "Know Birmingham" test, not only answered correctly the nine questions relating to the large affairs, but wrote what judges considered the best 75 word essay on the progress of Birmingham's growth. She stated in this that climate, location and the splendid facilities here were the attractions that would continue to bring people from other cities.

The judges were Charles A. Bingham, Iolla J. Coryell and L. W. Martindale.

FRANKLIN PICTURE IS GIVEN APPROVAL

Franklin's "storm movie" stands cleared today of all charges of indecency in the minds of most of the hundreds of people who attended a public showing of the film at Franklin Saturday night. It was the same film that drew the ire of Leo Hooper, former preacher of Franklin who now is engaged in the real estate business.

To verify the original showing of the film, "Let it Rain," featuring Douglas McLean, members of the church board held the show again Saturday and the results, they report were satisfactory to them.

Hooper is under suspended sentence for having broken the picture-machine with a hammer when the film was screened in June.

X-COUNTRY TEAM TO HOLD MEET

Baldwin Runners Prepare For Event With Three Other Schools

Birmingham, Royal Oak, Ferndale, Dearborn and perhaps Pontiac high school cross country track teams will stage the first of the fall meets at the Harnum field one week from Saturday, according to announcement made today by the athletic board of the Baldwin High School.

The meet will start at 10 a. m.

and is expected to attract the attention of the many students and villagers interested in this sport.

Prospects for this year's team are bright, the coaches say, despite the fact that but one member of last year's team will again run. He is George Williams, captain.
