Fall Discussion Groups To Begin Work Tuesday Night

Fall activities of Birmingham Y. M. C. A. groups are scheduled to start Tuesday night in several schools at the first discussion meetings.

Announcement of the group leaders and their assistants is made today by Robert Lynd, secretary of the southern Oakland County Y. M. C. A. They follow: Adams School: Morse Cook, L. Mansen and the Rev. Henry S. Evans. Pierce School: Edward Bissell, Robert Peck and H. Westerby. At the Baldwin High School groups from the Baldwin Junior High, Hill and Barnum schools will meet. Their leaders are not yet announced. Melvin C. Hart will lead the senior Hi-Y group. More than 200 boys of the villages are expected to attend the meetings, Mr. Lynd said. Plans are being made to start activities of the men's volleyball league.

CELEBRATE SILVER ANNIVERSARY

MRS. DAVID H. CURRY

More than 200 friends entered the cozy little home at 509 Bates street last Thursday to present their best wishes in person to the Rev. David H. Curry and Mrs. Curry on the occasion of their silver wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Curry were married Sept. 22, 1902, at the home of Mrs. Curry's parents, in Philadelphia, Pa., by the Rev. J. V. Boice and Dr. J. C. Schuller.

REV. DAVID H. CURRY

Mr. Curry was married before he had finished his education for the ministry, and it was not until he had been wed six years that he was ordained in the United Presbyterian Church. During those first lean years, Mrs. Curry worked in the grocery store they had bought, while Mr. Curry went to Westminster College in New-Castle, Pa., and to the Allegheny United Presbyterian Seminary.
