ALL COUNTY SCHOOLS ARE IN OPERATION

Health To Be Keynote Of
Year's Endeavor, Lederle
Plans

INSTITUTE IS CALLED

All Oakland County rural schools are in full operation today for the winter months, and the first teacher's institute has been called by Commissioner E. Lederle for Sept. 9 and 10. This institute will be held in Pontiac and the staff of helping teachers are prepared to explain to the 200 full-time teachers the projects which will occupy the time of the students and teachers in the rural schools this year.

Health is to be the keynote of the year's program, according to Mr. Lederle, and will be carried into every phase of the students' instruction. In preparation for the program all of the helping teachers attended the University of Michigan summer session, specializing in health work.

Tells Purpose
Miss Anna Van Lopik, Grand Haven, has been added to the staff of Mr. Lederle and will have charge of health education. Miss Van Lopik is a graduate of the Nurses' school at Battle Creek sanitarium, and last year received her A. B. degree from the University of Michigan. She has had extensive business experience and a varied experience in nursing. After Sept. 15 she will be assisted in her work by Miss Gretchen Elliott.

Helping teacher work will be carried out, as has been customary in the past, with each of the teachers supervising the work in a district section of the county. Health will be stressed during the first school months and will be applied to the other projects as the year progresses, being featured again the month before school closes. "It is not our purpose," said Mr. Lederle, speaking of the health project, "to primarily remedy health conditions, but rather by creating a health consciousness among pupils to prevent adverse health conditions in the future."

All New Teachers
Miss Van Lopik, assisted by Miss Elliott, will begin Sept. 15 an inspection of all rural school children whose parents do not object to the inspection. It is hoped that this work may be completed by the first of the new year.

Miss Maryann Ravell, Miss M. Ethel O'Connor and Miss Jennie H. Franseth, who made up the staff of helping teachers last year, will be assisted during the 1927-1928 period by Miss Harriet Van Antwerp, who recently was added to the staff by Mr. Lederle.

Miss Van Antwerp, whose home is in Dowagiac, has for some time been principal of the Cass City Normal, and for some time previous to that in rural work. She is a graduate of Western State Normal College at Kalamazoo and has taken advanced work at the University of Chicago. This summer she attended the University of Michigan, specializing in health work.

Helen L. Sales of Hartford, Conn., got tired of his girlish name and has asked that it be changed.

SPEED CASES LEAD OTHERS

Monthly Report Shows Traffic
Violations Top List

One $50 fine for drunk driving features the village report of Justice Malcolm Hunt's court for August, made public today. The total of fines collected was $131.10. Speeding here as in Judge Black's court was the most frequent offense, there being 28 such offenses recorded.

There were also seven drunk, one of whom received a 15 day jail sentence. Two cases of driving without operator licenses and two of driving without trailer licenses, one of driving without proper license plates, one of driving on a closed street one of parking on the wrong side of the street complete Judge Hunt's report for the month.

Songs of a Housewife

BABY SUE'S BATH

I VOW, Sue no more needs a bath
Than any fresh Killarney rose!
But rub the foam on her hair,
From go head to sea-shell
toe.

She stretches out her dimpled hand,
To catch the bubbles as they rise.
Each ripple is a miracle,
Each soapy splash a gay surprise.

Yes, let Aunt Annie watch the fun
Before we tuck Sue up in bed.
See how the sunlight blues her eyes,
And glids her water-tousled head!

Now wrap her snugly for her nap,
In her own loveliness enmeshed.
Her bath does me more good than
Sue—
It always leaves me so refreshed!

CHICAGO, Sept. 8.—After the Dempsey-Tunney fight what? Those who have been here on the fight, laboring on one angle or another, are already discussing what a future builds for the heavy-weight division, the principal coming melee whatever the outcome and the effect on the public of the outcome, what ever it may be.

And this is the general feeling as a whole.

A quick knockout victory for Dempsey will not only restore the faith of the public in the game in general, but it will make him the greatest fighter hero that ever lived, if he is that great.

A quick knockout victory for Tunney will raise Gene Tunney's still discussed status as a fighter, but will not give him the popularity other heavy-weight champions have carried in tradition.

But by the same token a quick knockout victory for Dempsey will instill deeper in the minds of most fans the belief, still existing, that Dempsey was not himself last September and that the fight was a fluke.

This with no intention of casting any discredit on the earnest endeavors of Tunney.

A decisive victory for Dempsey will present Tunney with the problem of fighting his way back to the title or quitting the ring with his million or more. It is extremely doubtful that Dempsey, should he win Sept. 22, will re-enter the ring to defend his title.

The spirit of the public may be willing but wiser counsel will prevail.

A decisive victory for Tunney will leave the game flat on its back. Dempsey has already disposed of the leading contender, and most likely prospect, Jack Sharkey. It will take two years or more to develop Sharkey or someone else into contender material. Sharkey seems the likely bet.

He has youth and some measure of fame today.

A victory for Tunney over Dempsey, similar in general aspect to that scored a year ago, will leave the public cold to the game—wary of short championship bouts that end with both men on their feet and the loser still carrying a potential kyo in his system.

A similar victory for Dempsey will leave the public hungry—disappointed that the battle did not last long to permit him to leave Tunney as Jack left men in his heyday—flat on their back.

Also a decisive victory for Dempsey will cause the spectators to suspect that this end was hoped

An Extraordinary FAIR at Imlay City, Michigan

Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday
September 13-14-15-16

EXHIBITS—Live Stock: Cattle, Sheep, Swine, Poultry. Exhibits by ladies: Needlework, table luxuries, canned goods, flowers, etc. Boys Agricultural Exhibit, showing the work of boys on the farm. Merchants' Exhibits, of amazing variety. And the great exhibit of the Canadian Government.

HORSE RACES—Unusually large purses Fair some unusually good horses. Races every day on a wonderfully good track. -Fine grandstand. Fine music. ($1,400.00 in purses).

FREE ATTRACTIONS—These are mentioned in adjoining column. They will delight everybody, young and old. See the elephants perform! See the funny clowns! See the acrobats and trapezists!

MIDWAY—There's where we all "let loose" and have a big time. The Northwestern Shows, F. L. Black, Manager, will be in charge. The whizzing whip, the merry-go-round, the dizzying ferris wheel, various other thrillers—and a variety of shows and amusements places, 35 in all!

BASEBALL—Best teams in Eastern Michigan will play Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. First, Imlay City Independents vs Rochester; then Almont vs Grand Trunk of Port Huron, then the winners play off. Wonderful baseball is certain with these great teams matched. ($480.00 in baseball purses!)

ELEPHANTS—Here's fun! Elephants that dance! Elephants that do all sorts of tricks and stunts! Performing elephants! Capt. Hall, their daring trainer, shows you what an elephant can do. It will thrill you, and make you laugh.

CLOWNS—Here's more fun! The Beardie Trio will amuse you by their "funny business" while they amaze you—give you shocks and shivers—by their marvelous tumbling and balancing.

HIGH IN THE AIR—While you hold your breath the Four Lorenzos, perched on apparatus that stretches 110 feet skyward, do astonishing gymnastic stunts—perform feats which, though you behold them, you declare are impossible! If your "heart's bad" don't watch the Four Lorenzos!

NAN STERLING—Winner of a gold medal as the best formed woman acrobat in the world! She and her team mate, Ralph Lohse, are acrobatic flashes. They do novel stunts that make you gasp. And Miss Sterling's stage presence and ultra-fashionable costumes are said to be a revelation!

BAND MUSIC—Three Bands: Trumpeters every day and night with a tenor soloist; also on Thursday, the Royal Oak City Band, and on Friday, the Almont High School Band. The great dance hall runs day and night, every day!

Drive to Imlay City and see this Extraordinary Fair Sept. 13, 14, 15, 16
