

ROCHESTER NAMES HEADS

Appointment of four village officers by President Clayton Crisman was approved by the council at its recent meeting in Rochester.

Henry M. Axford was confirmed as president pro tem, Dr. C. F. Strain was appointed health officer for the village, and Roy Wilson street commissioner. George G. Spencer was approved for chief of police.

The council added 500 feet to the sewer, installed in the alley east of Main street, starting from Mill street, and running north.

Development of plans for the proposed village sewage disposal plant are in abeyance until the engineers now engaged in making a survey of a site, have completed their work and presented a final report.

A. SHANLEY ROSSO, Minister, 116 Park street, Birmingham, has recently been unanimously elected to the Legion of Honor at the last meeting of the Grand Council Order of DeMolay held in Kansas City, Mo.

The Legion of Honor is the highest degree and honor awarded by the Grand Council and is attained by a DeMolay who is not only outstanding, but also active in the religious and civic life of his community as well. The recommendation for this honor is made by the Advisory Council to Grand Council in charge of the state or jurisdiction where the chapter is located. From the list of nominations sent him by the chapters, the deputy is privileged to select one candidate for each 100 new members in his jurisdiction during the year.

At the time of Mr. Rosso's election there were three members chosen from Detroit.

There will be a meeting the evening of May 5 in the new Masonic temple, Detroit, to confer the order.

Mr. Rosso is connected with the First National Bank of Birmingham.

DETROITER FINED

E. E. Edwards, Philadelphia avenue, Detroit, was arrested yesterday by Patrolman George Townsend on the charge of speeding. He paid a fine of $10 at Justice Malcolm Hunt's court.

Mr. and Mrs. Alan Joslyn will move this week to their new home on Suffolk road in the Quarton Lake district.

DAMAGE DONE BY FLAMES

Flames believed to have originated from wiring in the attic of the home at 126 east Third street, Rochester, Tuesday caused damage amounting to about $500. Neighbors discovered the flames issuing from the roof of the building occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Miller, while Mrs. Miller was engaged in some work in the basement. They turned in an alarm and the village fire department responded. Chemicals were used to extinguish the blaze. One wing of the house and the roof were damaged, but furnishings escaped serious damage because no water was thrown. The house is owned by Vernor M. Spaulding.

Miss Mary B. Greene of Cincinnati has completed 33 years of service as a steamboat captain.
