The Town that Time Forgot

It is not so much that the rolling hills lift you up so high that you may look far over town and country. It is not even the seemingly sunny sunshine, the free sweet air, or the charm of gurgled old fruit trees with their promises of blossoming glory, that is drawing so many nowadays to Franklin Village. The urge that none may turn trivia more the haunting spell of by-gone days that hangs forever over this sleepy valley. Here dawns a little white village untouched by the drab hand of city makers, a setting for homes that recall the days when homes were homes indeed. . . . Franklin Village . . . "The Town that Time Forgot."

A Permanent Pleasure

SO many forms of shopping give the woman buyer pleasure at the time of purchase only. The article bought is attractive superficially and has only an ephemeral appeal. Later, the purchase may be regretted. But when Mrs. LaBelle and I buy for future selling, we reconcile our impulses with the idea of PERMANENT pleasure to our customers.

Mrs. Frank L. Bromley gave a luncheon for her French conversation class Wednesday, at her home, "Uplands."

Mrs. Warner Forreth and children left last night for a month's visit in Newport, Ark.

Mrs. and Mrs. John B. Taylor of Madison avenue returned here last Tuesday from a winter in Newport, R. I.

Mrs. Arthur Halgren of Lakewood drive spoke on the purchase of the new Community House to women gathered at a tea given by the Delphian Society Wednesday at the Baldwin Public Library.

WHERE EXCLUSIVENESS ENDURES

People Move—Homes Don't!

When you are making decisions about the home you will buy or build—give most careful thought to Neighborhood. What will it be five or ten years from today?

You've seen what happens when undesirable elements are allowed to invade a once-desirable neighborhood. The particular families move. But their homes can't move with them! Why buy or build an attractive home—then be forced to leave it?

In the Judson Bradway properties, residences are permanently desirable because they are forever protected by Judson Bradway's "Use and Building Agreement." The exclusiveness of homes in Bloomfield Village, Eastover, Chelmsleigh, is assured, not for a single generation, but forever.

You will be surprised at the low prices of homesites and homes in Bloomfield Village—the residence community just west and north of Birmingham, where Bloomfield Hills began. For information—Randolph 9700
