

WE CLEAN RUGS

We Operate Our Own Plant. Visit Us—See How Rugs Are Cleaned.

Yes! But we do more than that. Thirty years' experience enables us to add new life and lustre to domestics and orientals. This is why our work stands out.

Our cleaning equipment is complete and modern. No rug or carpet is too large or too small to receive careful attention.

As for repairing—we employ expert native Armenians who perform near miracles with their skilled hands.

We boast many satisfied customers. References on request.

Mrs. Harry W. Potter has been chosen chairman for the annual Community House Birthday party to be held at the Community House, April 28. Announcement of the membership of the special gifts committee for the Community House campaign was made today, as follows: H. A. O'Dell, chairman; Mrs. George T. Hendrie, Mrs. Matthew B. Whittlesey, A. C. Utter, Roland H. Mann, Judson Broadway, Mrs. William H. Traub, Mrs. Robert Traub, Mrs. A. J. Stahelin, Mrs. H. A. O'Dell, Mrs. Harry W. Bird, Mrs. W. D. Thompson, Mrs. Franklin P. Robbins, Mrs. W. G. Harry, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Leichen, Miss Sarah Sly, Mrs. Frank W. Shuman and Mrs. Clarence Booth.

The first meeting of the special gifts committee is to be held at 8 p. m. Tuesday at the Bloomfield Hills Country club. Plans for their part in the drive for the new Community House will be laid at that time.

Wedding Planned On Birthday

Couple Born May 26 Plan Nuptials Same Day Richardson Bride-Elect

Both birthdays are on May 26 and the wedding also will be on that day.

This is the story accompanying the wedding announcement today of Miss Agnes Richardson, for two years kindergarten teacher in the Hill School, and Henry Johnson of Flint.

They are to be married in Flint, May 26. When intend to make their home in the city.

News of the impending wedding leaked out when Miss Richardson declined to renew her contract with the Birmingham schools for the coming year.

In honor of the bride-elect, a shower is planned by Miss Ibert McCoy and Mrs. Henry Berg, May 17, at the latter's home on Pierce street.

DELAY SEEN IN WORK ON G. T. ROADWAY

(Concluded from Page 1) cision of Frank F. Rogers, state highway commissioner, who presided at the hearing, will withhold the necessary, as the only witnesses called at the hearing were for the state, and no actual testimony was offered by the landowners contradicting the necessity.

Pioneer In County Honored At Reunion

Later the family moved to Detroit and occupied a four-story home on High street—then the outskirts of the city.

Mrs. Randall's life has been one of color—just as was her entrance into Detroit as a child.

Alive to the intellectual changes of the country she has written articles which have brought fame to her. In her early life she was steeped in the atmosphere of intelligence. A great companion of her mother, she spent many a long evening in deep discussion with such famous persons as Wall Whitman, Thoreau, Alcott and others who used to travel to Pontiac to be guests at the home of her parents.

Her winters for 18 years she passed in Mexico where the habits of the people interested her at the home of her son, Huntley B. Randall.

Of late years she has been remaining during the summer in her large home in Drayton Plains—alone. Her years mean little to her and the same spirit—which sent her parents into the strange almost unexplored "west" revolts when there is a suggestion that others of the family live with her for "company's sake."

Among those who will attend the dinner in her honor tonight are: Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Gifford, Mr. and Mrs. John Gaffill, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Utter, Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Ives, all of Birmingham.

From Detroit there will be Lewis T. Ives, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth L. Guest, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Hitchcock, William H. Leggett, Mrs. May Leggett Abel and Frederick Abel, Mr. and Mrs. Percival S. Pease are to come from their home in Royal Oak and Miss Kate Leggett from Drayton Plains.

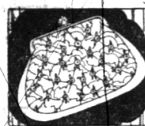

A huge birthday cake with 30 candles has been ordered and spring colors will dominate the home. Spring is the note that has run through the life of Mrs. Randall always, Miss Whittemore said, hence it has been chosen for this occasion.

Mrs. L. W. Porter, Nixon road, entertained Wednesday at a bridge-luncheon given at her home. She will give another this Friday. Saturday night she is entertaining at a dinner party before the performance of the Village Players.
