VARIETY MARKS FINAL PLAYERS OFFERING; DATES SET FOR PUBLIC

Some very clever acting—even though part of it was perhaps as gross as a theme as ever presented in the Playhouse—featured the monthly presentation of three one-act plays by the Village Players here last Saturday night.

Two of the offerings were of the humorous nature. "Woman of Character," by Estelle Aubrey Brown, and "Apartments to Let," by Elliott Nugent and Howard Kinsley; "The Fourth Degree," written and directed by Seeley Brown, member of the Players.

Many Invitations Out For Community House Presentation in Hills

Within the next fortnight there will be three lovely affairs at the Bloomfield homes of Mr. and Mrs. Walter O. Briggs, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Newcomb, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stripp Booth.

On each occasion the guest list will number well over 100 and the feature of the evening will be a most interesting two act comedy drama, entitled "Aboard," and presented in the interests of the Community House.

Mr. and Mrs. Booth will host next Thursday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Newcomb will entertain the following Monday evening, May 7, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter O. Briggs have chosen Tuesday evening May 8.

Invitations were issued by the citizens' honorary committee are now in the mail and the guests at each affair will include the friends and neighbors of the hosts as well as the members of the committee functioning in the Bloomfield and surrounding country districts.

The playlet is being produced under the direction of Mrs. George P. Raynal and Mrs. Harriet Stringham. The members of the cast include the following: Betty Brodie, Josephine Tallifero, Jane Thompson, Jane Winnings, George Wason, Ernest Mann, Elton Buck, Dr. George Raynal, E. H. Newton, Walter Elliott, Rodney Wicks, and Mrs. T. R. Donovan.

The stage committee for the evening consisted of Arthur Neff, Charles Auser, Harold Klein, Bill Wall, Polio Spinning, Bob Biggs, and L. W. Fetter. Other bits were in charge of Cecil Charlton, Betty Morgan, Hildegarde John, and Dr. H. T. Sauer.

Last Saturday's offering was the last regular performance for the season.

Dates for the annual public performance have been set for May 17, 18, and 19, with a matinee on Saturday afternoon, May 19. The plays will be given in the Playhouse. The plays selected by the directors of the Players club are "Jazz and Mimic," "The Love of His Father," by J. Fred Woodruff, and "The Melancholy Dame." Tickets will soon be placed on sale, according to Margaret Stringham, chairman.

Plans are made to accommodate 500 persons at the bridge luncheon. Mrs. LaBelle said, the entire luncheon to be given the afternoon of May 11 at the Fox and Hounds Inn, Bloomfield Hills, according to announcement made. The proceeds from the affair will be used for the Student Loan Fund of Birmingham.
