POTTERY SUBJECT OF CLUB PROGRAM

Chairman of Arts in Detroit Federation Is Speaker at Meeting: Exhibits Shown

Mrs. L. H. McColgin, chairman of the fine arts department of the Detroit Federation of Women's Clubs, entertained an appreciative audience Tuesday afternoon when she spoke to the Women's Literary club at their regular meeting in the auditorium of the Baldwin Public Library.

Pieces of the pottery, which were loaned by club members, were exhibited during the program. A saucer with a purple transfer design, loaned by Mrs. James A. Fairchild, a white stone plate belonging to Mrs. L. H. Waldrip, green cameo pieces from Mrs. Fred Ross, pieces of blue came from Mrs. J. B. Howarth and a teapot of black basalt with white came from Mrs. E. M. Hartwell were included.

Two plates of queensware were loaned by Mr. and Mrs. Eric Cortis-Stanford, by the Duke of Argyll in a full set of queensware in honor of Mr. Cortis-Stanford's contribution to science through his discovery of the process by which iodine is extracted from seaweed.

Mrs. F. A. Healy was chairman for the afternoon and arranged for the music which accompanied the address. Mrs. Herbert Schultz sang "Giddy Days" by Johnson with Mrs. L. E. Welch at the piano and Mrs. Welch also accompanied Mrs. Otto Lentz and Mrs. T. B. Smith when they sang. Mrs. Thomas Thurber was hostess for the afternoon and chairman of the committee which served food after the program.

Members of the business meeting, outlines for the coming year, work were given by the chairman of the departments.

Beauty—IS A MATTER OF TAKING CARE

My work is to help others realize that beauty is inherent in everything and simply needs to be unfolded and cultivated. As an expert I enable women of Birmingham to realize that beauty lies within themselves. Let me advise you for the sake of your personal charm.
