'FIFTY-FIFTY' PLEASES CROWD

The second annual DeMolay play, "Fifty-Fifty," directed by Mrs. Louis C. Hofman and George F. Johnson was presented last Friday evening in the Baldwin High School auditorium before an audience of approximately 300 persons.

Maxwell Gail as Henry Brown and William Spence as Paul Green, were consistently two pals who did everything on the fifty-fifty basis. Catherine Lipka, who played opposite Mr. Gail, was charming in the portrayal of Sophia Bland, a dancer.

Athletes Given Medal Awards

Rev. Frank L. Field, of the Pontiac Central Methodist Church, addressed the students of Baldwin High school Friday afternoon at chapel. Rev. Field compared some of the sacrifices made in the history of Christianity with sacrifices which everyone could make on a smaller scale today.

Claude Stroh, a former student of the high school, and well known among the younger set, sang two selections accompanied by Mildred Green also a Baldwin graduate.

SCREEN COUPLE ON HONEYMOON

Mary Astor, screen actress, and Kenneth Hawkes, film director, whose wedding was one of the most notable functions of the winter in Hollywood, Cal., have been passing their honeymoon in Cuba and Panama. Above, they are posing aboard ship.

SCHOOL PAPER ACTS AS CONTEST SPONSOR

Announcement was made in the second issue of the Maroon and White, official publication of Baldwin High School, that the booster club had been organized.

The Booster, Adams Junior High publication, appeared last Friday with three pages, rather than the two which it has been using.

An editorial on the death and life of the late Senator Woodbridge N. Ferris, printed in the first week's issue of the Adams Booster, points out the valued life the Senator led and how he may serve as a model.

The Gray Sweet Shop finished first when the Merchant's League closed with Williams Boot shop's team second and the Birmingham Department Store third.

The Masonic League will complete its play Friday evening at the Birmingham Recreation and plans are under way for the start of a Duck Pin League next week.

BOWLING

production will more than offset the extra expense entailed.

The stage crew required to handle the scenery and effects of "Gay Paree" is almost equal in point of numbers to the singers, dancers, models and other performers.

There are over forty different scenes in "Gay Paree." Some of them, costly and beautiful, are given but a few fleeting seconds while the longest period without shift of scenery is but seven minutes.

The Fan of Love Girls, or L'Eventail des Femmes d'Amour as it is called in French, is as lovely as it is daring.
