plaster on the end of the hallway two elevator shafts hidden behind simple bronze floors furnish the decoration.
The visitor walks across the marble floor, which is in a subdued checkered pattern.

The visitors climb the stairway of broad shallow steps, feeling even more strongly that elated sensation of height. One half of the second floor is given over to the general offices of Senator Couzens, the Wabek corporation of Frank Couzens, Inc., occupying the building the woodwork is of walnut and Senator Couzens' office, which has windows on the two sides, permitting a view of Bloomfield Hills, is wainscoted in walnut.

The entire building which was designed by Albert Kahn, is constructed with reinforced concrete and inch baseboards of Tennessee marble supplement the walnut paneling.

THEATERS

CASS
Schwab and Mandel's popular musical romance "The Desert Song" Case Theatre Detroit will end its engagement there on Saturday, September 8th, and begin its road tour in St. Louis the following Monday.

Now in its fourteenth week, it has broken all records for musical attractions in the Motor City, its nearest rival being the popular Romberg opera, "The Student Prince," which ran for thirteen weeks, a record which "The Desert Song" will surpass by an even month.
The inimitable Bernard Granville, principal comedian, is again appearing in the role of "Benny" after a brief vacation, and the leading roles are being sung by Bernice Claire and Donald Douglas, both of whom have gained popularity with Detroit audiences. Harold Stanton, tenor; Philip Ryder, basso; Edna Torner, soprano; Carlotta Miles, Comedienne; Sally Sloan, ingenue; and John Ehrlie, tenor, will be seen in the roles they have sung and acted for the past year.

Will Appreciate Your Vote
In appreciation of the confidence that the voters of Oakland County have heretofore placed in me and believing that my past experience has prepared me to render a service greater than ever before, I am presenting myself before the nomination of coroner at the primary September 8th.

BIRMINGHAM GETS NATURAL GAS SERVICE

Long felt need of gas for cooking and other household uses now a reality
Philfuels Company offers this new service—an individual service for every home

At last you may rid yourselves of old time inefficient and unsatisfactory cooking methods. A plentiful supply of natural gas—nature's most perfect fuel, called Philgas—is now available for every home in this community, through a new, simple and effective service plan developed and perfected by the Philfuels Company.

A Gas Well in Your Own Back Yard
Philgas requires no attention on your part. The Philfuels Company makes the installation complete and permanently maintains it. You have no responsibility or obligation. Natural gas is brought right to the burners of your kitchen stove. It is just like going to a gas company and saying, "I want gas service in my home now."

Supplants All Other Fuels
Philgas heat is instantaneous—burns with an intensely hot, instantly regulated, clear blue cooking flame. Just light it and start cooking. Being natural gas, Philgas is clean, odorless, smokeless, free from soot. It leaves no greasy smudge, no black on pots or pans.

Restrictions on the rapidity with which heat may be applied for cooking food; no waiting for electricity to heat up; no heat elements to replace; no fuses to burn out; no switches to turn on.

Never before has such cooking convenience been offered the citizens of this community. You can have Philgas service at once. You need not wait for mains or meters for neither are required.

down by the oddities on the lakes has it that Chief Engineer William McGee, of the steamboat Rochester, devised the first whistle operated by steam from a sketch he saw in an English magazine.

The whistle was still at Mackinac Island when the Porter came into port, and Capt. Gager hurried over to the dock to see the man who had so humbly squawked at him. McGee was willing enough to continue the argument, but friends intervened and the matter was settled without blows.

The whistle in a short time replaced the bell and was soon in common use, not only on the lakes but on the land.
