Even though college life scarcely leaves you time enough to get your oils break? Art Classes are bound to be one of the most popular classes in the course. And wide youths who are leaving for school, within a week or two will lay in a supply of materials and be all ready when school commences. The Devoe Paint & Art Store, 147 Woodward Ave., carries a complete line of artists' materials—oil colors, water colors, china paint, brushes, palette, canvases, instruction books etc. in fact everything that could be necessary. I think they could furnish THAT on a minutes' notice!

The "Froshiest Frosh" that ever crossed a campus will cast an envious eye over the luggage of incoming school mates before picking a chair for wide little flapper that she, well does she figure, "by their luggage shall ye know them." Chas. R. Peck Sons, 122 S. Woodward Ave., has a marvelous line of smartly styled luggage in a variety of beautiful leathers. Trunks of every size and description in a grand variety. Huge affairs which would hold one's complete school wardrobe. Hat Boxes, Fitted Bags, Overnight Cases. Exquisitely matched ensembles! Oh, they've a size and a style to answer every need, and they're most reasonably priced!

With the most interesting Campaign in a decade, just around the corner, there are bound to be speeches, debates and returns which one would not want to miss! Grinnell's Music Shop, 111 S. Woodward Ave., have a complete line of RADIOS and are prepared to install them and give expert advice upon just how to get the best results from each set. Why not have a set installed now and familiarize yourself with all the different stations in time for the BIG BATTLE!

DRUGS

"I want what I want, when I want it," seems to be the battle cry of every Drug Store patron, whether it be "dye pills" for the chronic dyspeptic, "Ice cream" as a last minute dessert, or cold cream for the heavy duty. I've found that Shain's Drug Store, 119 W. Maple Ave., not only have a complete stock of the million and one articles the modern drug store is expected to carry, but their SERVICE is 100% perfect! A full staff of clerks means almost instant counter SERVICE. Four registered pharmacists means no waiting for prescriptions, and their outside delivery service is unbeatable! Shain's for Service, is truly the slogan of this progressive store!

I wandered into Williams Shoe Store, 121 W. Maple Ave., the other afternoon when the temperature was ranging around 95, and truth to tell, my mind was so much on my feet I felt good and shoeless! Besides the door personnel, I seemed to have developed a pair of shoes come on each foot! Small wonder I found all my interest centered on the various cases and remedies the store carries. They've magic salves, plasters, ointments, powders, braces, pads and supports. Accessories guaranteed to relieve foot trouble and bring heavenly relief to suffering pedestrians.

When shopping in the Village, women are making a practice of a noon luncheon at Stewart's Sweet Shop, 112 W. Maple Ave. It is a restful break in a hot busy day, and more husband can be given the shopping "bug" scene, and if more "snapping money" is received I can think of no more diplomatic place to branch the subject for the delicious food served there, be it still a "hot chick" feeling in husbandly breads. And when sweet tooth aches, there's a real cure at this shop. There is an infinite variety of delicious candies, nuts and ice creams.

A visit to The Bloomfield Hills Antique Shop, 172 S. Woodward Ave., and one can vision a dozen delightful rooms furnished with the treasures found there! This week I saw some mahogany dressers that were perfect copies of some of them nearly as tall as mybays. They would simply "make" any hall, with the addition of a well chosen painting and perhaps a pair of candlesticks. A further note would be an ideal piece of furniture for a bachelor's quarters, serving double duty as a head of bed and because of the generous drawer space a utility piece.

Happy the school girl who can enter into every game and sport with no thought of a "ruined nail" in the offing! A permanent nail before leaving for school means an enjoyable term with "hair problems." Marguerite gives such marvelous advice that if I were leaving for school I shouldn't miss stopping in at her lovely shop, 145 S. Woodward Ave., for "Permanent to defy Autumn winds and rains!" By "he way the Orchid, green and silver sales, is gradually becoming a delightful reality," and "in sure when I stop in next week will be complete," then I'll tell you ALL about it.

With the Fall Season, just about to get under way, Maxine Hart is prepared in her delightful shop in Bloomfield Center with an exquisite assortment of mod models! The same shimmering taste which he has displayed in arranging her most artistic salon is evidenced in the smart gowns she has chosen for discriminating patron. One thing I always marvel at is her ability to get such a wonderful selection of smart models in larger sizes. And because the store's clothing half ways, a lovely collection of gargantuan jewelry has followed right in the wake of these new gown!

It's a most delightful occupation, selecting a gift at The Gift and Art Shop, 105 W. Maple Ave., for there are so many lovely things one's only problem is to make one's own selection. This week I saw a number of elegant, well clocked, it was so delightful to look at! I also saw a lovely green glass lamp with a flowered white shade ruffled in green. Clever imported clocks which were dainty enameled miniature of harem scene with tiny weights and all. Oh this charming shop off its dozens of clever gift suggestions!

BANKING

Happy the school girl who can enter into every game and sport with no thought of a "ruined nail" in the offing! Everyone knows that to be successful one has to take an interest in his business, and a sure way of taking an INTEREST in your business is to deposit regularly a part of your earnings in The First State Savings Bank, Woodward & Maple Aves. for you are entitled to taking 4% interest, day in and day out. Why not let a Savings Bank be a real silent partner! It will work for you no one else but you and your business!

A visit to Pertine Beazley Garrett's, Birmingham Theatre Building always means seeing some delightful new arrival for the ladies or for Mother! This week I saw some adorable booties for stables, pickles, the "wee one" etc. etc. Hallock's Grocery Store, 116 W. Maple Avenue, carry a complete assortment of every seasonable fruit and vegetable as well as all the materials necessary for canning—glass jars, rubber bands, paraffine, etc., and they ARE AS NEAR TO YOU AS YOUR TELEPHONE, and if you can't call (or won't) this same store has a marvelous assortment of canned goods ready for serving!

The Fleur des Lac Tea Room in Bloomfield Center is a most charming spot to take the chance guests who motor in! It's homely atmosphere gives a delightful hospitable touch to luncheon, and the food is as delicious, the atmosphere and service are so perfect that the simplest meal attains a most "partied air." Practice home-made and to be a wise home at least one Fleur des Lac dinner a week and their families are most enthusiastic "guests."

MEALTIME STORIES
BY THE MAN-IN-THE-MOON

Every Thursday we will publish one of a series of verses and illustrations by Miss MacDonald. This artist, noted for her rare knowledge of child psychology, has a rare instinct for telling stories that cannot fail to please children and their parents.

Come to the land of milk and honey—
Purer foods you've never eaten.
Here you'll get a run for your money—
Foods you'll say cannot be beaten.

To the Children of Birmingham:

I hope these Mealtime Stories bring healthful joy to the little ones of this village! I'll send them all to you just as the Man-in-the-Moon told them to me! I hope that you children will read every one of them, and that you and your folks will have every good thing in life that they wish for.

Lucy B. MacDonald
