

"JESUS: THE WAY OUT OF HUMAN UNREST"

(By Rev. David L. Woodward, Pastor Birmingham First Baptist Church)

The great practical problem upon which the solution of all other problems depends, is striving after certain things, whether the Christian religion can satisfy human nature, give to life an elevating and realizing purpose, and make existence worth enduring.

Under the present conditions of human nature it profoundly and increasingly restless; and it is this restless condition which provides the uncertain and intractable factor in such problems.

Old Timers Hang Together

Mr. Noble, 74, oldest employee of the Oakland Motor Car Co., at the wheel of his oldest running Oakland.

The oldest employee of the Oakland Motor Car company factory in Pontiac, Mich., apparently is the owner and driver of what is known as the oldest Oakland car in daily service.

W. E. Noble, 74, who has served the Oakland Motor Car company for 34 years, is the owner of the oldest Oakland car in daily service.

PURCHASE OF TIRES FOR FUTURE USED

Leon Miller, Local General Tire Co. Dealer, Makes Suggestion

Not until tires are worn will you solve one of the most vexing problems of motorists who are purchasing new tires. The suggestion of Leon Miller, local General Tire Co. dealer, is to purchase tires for future use.

months and miles of service their tires give them. Keeping the mileage records on General Tires will be a long drawn out job, stretching over a number of years. The General tire easily can be judged by its birthday on the day it goes.

On Vacation Tours... Take Travelers Checks

Experienced tourists will tell you the safest way to carry travel funds is in the form of travelers checks. They are of no value until countersigned by you in the presence of the person accepting.

They are accepted just like money in payment of goods or services at leading stores, hotels, garages and oil stations all over the country.

They are very convenient abroad as they can be cashed at current rates of exchange in any of the leading countries.

Come in and have us prepare a supply for you.
