ROADCAST PHOTO FROM AIRPLANE BUFFALO'S "FARMER" MAYOR SEEKS TO SUCCEED SMITH

Dinner Stories

An Awful Knock
A bore had been talking for hours about himself and his achievements.

Angels Won't Do
"Now, dear, you need not be frightened," said a mother, as she kissed her little daughter good-night. "I'm going to take away the candle, but remember there's an angel by your bed to take care of you." "Oh, Mummy," said the little girl, "couldn't you take away the angel and let me have the candle?"

Retaliation
A young woman hastened up to the manager of a local stock com-

"You knocked off work too soon," came a quiet voice from the corner.

"What experience?" they asked her.

"I haven't had any experience," she replied; "I just had an awful fight with my husband and his family, so I decided to go on the stage and embarrass them."

Squealed!
The policeman entered the cafe and with great dignity announced to a man at one of the tables, "Your car awaits without." "Without what?" retorted the rather loud-mouthed gentleman. "Without lights," said the policeman. "Your name and address, please."

"the Orchard the Meadow the Deep-tangled Wildwood"

SWEET is the road of life that turns at last back to the peaceful scenes of childhood. After all is said and done there was a quiet joy in those simple things so lightly accepted then . . . so dear to dreams of now.

And so, at length, we draw our plans for a rambling white house, where hollyhocks may bask by sunlit walls, crocuses peep unafraid from the grass, green vines climb up and wind themselves about the windows.

If you dream these dreams come out to Franklin Village. This is the place for such a home. This is the place that will restore to you . . . and give your children, what someday they will prize . . . "the orchard, the meadow, the deep-tangled wildwood" . . . and every loved scene that your infancy knew.
