lege youths OF COURSE! . . . Be that as it may, the Collegiate has an uncanny sense of value when it comes to recognizing REAL QUALITY in clothes. That's why I'm sure there will be many a Siss-Boom . . . and Three Tiger-Boom . . . for the marvelous suit values shown at Vhaas. R. Peck Sons, 102 S. Woodward Ave. They surely have it . . . and How! Best of all they're prices remarkably low!

will wend its way back cityward! . . . There's always one real grief in home coming . . . and that's an emptyarder! . . . But Hallock's Grocery Store, 116 S. Maple Avenue, soon remedy that with their MARVELOUS SERVICE! . . . you'll barely have time to cold cream travel dust from your nose before they'll be at your door with your order! . . . Incidentally college youths will soon be on their way and won't end visits to them to be in order! . . . No surer way to win a welcome than taking a box of delicacies packed by this same store! . . . They've a dozen and one dainties that appeal to that school girl APPETITE!

Exquisite hose in both chiffon and service weights . . . Collars and cuffs . . . ties . . . ribbons and frills! . . . and for those who will vote for a private room instead of a "dorm" all the linens, etc. necessary to furnish it!

Speeders Fined in Justice Court

Three persons paid fines for reckless driving Monday in Justice Malcom Hunt's court. Patrolman Frank Williams, 3349 Fred G. Carey, 3319 Senator avenue, Detroit, arrested by a fine of $15. Jacob Johnson 3349 west Warren avenue, Detroit, arrested by Patrolman Joseph MacGregor and James W. Mason, 241 Glendale avenue, also of Detroit, arrested by Patrolman Williams, paid fines of $5 each on similar charges. Abraham Levitt, 15327 La Salle street, Detroit, was fined $15 Saturday by Justice Malcom Hunt for travelling 35 miles an hour in Woodward avenue. Patrolman Williams made the arrest.

And be assured of continued efficiency. Don't trade a sure thing for an experiment.

But since the lady in question already has two "beats" or "Harts" whichever way the collective should be spelled, she'd probably refuse to have a third! . . . Just the same if you're looking for the chic that is truly Parisian you will delight in the lovely wearables at Maxine Hart's Gown Shop in Bloomfield Center! . . . They are ALL so exquisite. And it's amazing the number of smart styles that are shown in the larger sizes!

RED PIPER

Vagrant attacks of "sniffles" seem to lurk just around the corner from the very minute school opens 'till late in the Spring! However, many a cold can be avoided by making sure that one's feet are well shod. The Williams Shoe Store, 121 W. Maple Ave., carry a complete line of sturdy . . . well styled . . . well made . . . school and dress shoes for children! . . . The well known Red Piper Shoe is ideal for every day and dress up wear, as they are scientifically constructed, especially for growing feet, and yet come in smartest styles!

"And so to bed!" Sounds like the well known last line in an English novel! . . . Instead it's the prelude to the jale I'm dying to tell about: the wonderful hand-woven Bed Spreads I saw at The Tut's Shop, 125 W. Maple Ave. They're such luxurious affairs and at the same time so "comfy" looking! . . . I can't imagine a more delightful bed covering, especially in the coming Fall and Winter months!

Did you know that women are "going to keep in style this year?" . . . You say they ALWAYS are! . . . Oh, no! . . . maybe "dying" but not "dyeing"! Fashion decrees that nothing is more smart and youthful becoming than the brightly hued kerchiefs which may be worn such a multitude of ways! . . . The Devoe Paint & Art Shop, 147 S. Woodward Ave., have a marvelous new dye which makes it possible for one to secure over a hundred different shades . . . and it's certainly a fascinating art to make these "kerchiefs and scarfs one's self! . . . With little effort one can secure a quite Parisian affair . . . in color and pattern that's not apt to be duplicated! . . . Incidentally Christmas isn't TOO far away to think of the delightful gifts which can be made in this same manner!

"They labor not, neither do they spin!" . . . yet Solomon in ALL his glory was not arrayed as one of these! . . . Who? . . . Why the Col-

Never having majored in Botany, I'M not sure if the Fleur des Lis belongs to the night blooming flora or not! . . . In fact I'm none too clear if it IS Flora . . . or Fauna! . . . But whether it does or not (belong to the night blooming species) I discovered this week that the Fleur des Lis Tea Room down in Bloomfield Center does 9:00! Dinners are served until any way and it is now open until 11:00 . . . which gives one ample time to get there even from Detroit! . . . and, oh, its so well worth the trip! . . . The atmosphere is perfect and the food delicious!

Crowns may be low, medium, high, or MINUS! . . . but just the same one can't help but be "High Hat" when wearing one of the lovely models Irene is showing in her hat shop, 147 S. Woodward Ave. There are chic sport and travel affairs brimful of Holiday smartness for the Labor Day trip! . . . Felts and velvets in every conceivable shade of brown . . . blue and black! Then for very best she is showing gorgeously smart affairs of hatter's plush in practically every color . . . They are the last word in chic for a Fall dress hat . . . and Irene is showing lovely styles from many of the leading makers!

"First impressions are always best!" . . . a familiar phrase and never truer than when applied to Early American pressed glass. The Bloomfield Hills Antique Shop, 172 S. Woodward Ave., have marvelous pieces in crystal, amber, canary and Bohemian red. I saw perfectly gorgeous sets of goblets . . . pitchers, cake plates, etc. Also old fashioned lamp bases which are absolutely charming when filled with colored water and very useful too, for a simple attachment can be purchased to transform them into the most modern of lamps! . . . I saw too a marvelous set of "Westward-Ho" glasses which was designed to commemorate the Gold Rush of '49! Each piece is topped with a figure of Tippecanoe . . . and in the design itself one finds represented Bisons . . . Log Cabins, etc.

Maybe you don't like to "save for a rainy day" . . . alright DON'T then! . . . Save for a SUN-ny one instead, and since it's such fun saving with a real object in mind . . . why not save with the idea of embarking some sunny day on a journey you've always planned on! . . . Say California! . . . Montreal . . . New York . . . or if you're real ambitious EUROPE! . . . Why not open up a Savings Account at the First State Savings Bank, Woodward and Maple Aves., and let IT work for you, too! . . . It will be piling up 4% interest all the while you're saving!

Labor Day . . . and then the caravan from lake and mountain!

TWO CORONERS WILL BE NOMINATED

RE-ELECT CORONER FARMER

The Primaries are upon us. I earnestly solicit the support of the people in Southern Oakland County. Two men are to be nominated for the office of Coroner at the Primaries, in Oakland County. I cannot hope or expect to be the first choice of the citizens of Southern Oakland County, but I do covet the honor of being your second choice.

Include me with the man you choose from your own township.

Your support will be greatly appreciated. Pledging myself to continue efficient and prompt service when re-elected, I am

O. C. FARMER.

VOTE FOR TWO - IT'S YOUR DUTY
