In Memoriam

To
MISS ELVA HICKOX

Across our world there comes a pall,
For she, a friend to one and all,
Has passed away.
After work is finished and well done,
She mixed our hardships with our fun
Our toil with play.
So happy she, so full of cheer,
She shared for us but did not care,
It made her glad.
A friend she was to everyone,
She went not by the honors won,
Helped good or bad.
On our hearts is written her name,
Though times may change 'tis the same
We'll love her more.
That she has left should make us be
More glad than sad, cause reached by she
The Happy Shore.

Bloomfield Village

Where average incomes command all the advantages of Bloomfield Hills

Bloomfield Village offers the distinction of a Bloomfield Hills location—but without the expense of maintaining a large estate.

Broad homesites, none less than 75-feet front, line these graceful winding driveways. There is an unmistakable air of exclusiveness; there is the Bloomfield Hills atmosphere of lakes and hills, majestic trees, country clubs.

Bloomfield Village homes portray the finest work of the modern architect. Drive out and see them!
