

SOUTH WHEEL COME RAZED

Flames Sweep House In Sub-division; Occupants Unknown

A loss of $40,000 was estimated when fire destroyed a large brick residence in the Louise subdivision near the Eleven- and One-Half-Mile and Southfield roads, Saturday night.

The fire was started early in the evening and was not extinguished until midnight. The damage was estimated by Chief Cy Matern of the Berkeley fire department.

VILLAGERS AND THE VILLAGE

(Concluded from Page 1)

A love of the limelight was never in the nature of any young villager the other day. A mother had left a child, about five or six years old, in a cradle in a Maple avenue store.

RIGHT TO TREE OWNERSHIP DISCUSSED BY REAL ESTATE MEN

The following article was submitted by the secretary of the Birmingham Real Estate board, Donald G. Sorenson.

If the branches of a nice big apple tree overhang your yard from a neighbor's yard, you have no legal right to take as much as one apple from the tree.

PRaise GIVEN GRID TEAM

(Concluded from Page 1)

Lee-A. White, village commissioner, serving as toastmaster, commended the boys on their fine spirit of willingness, cooperation and sportsmanlike display.

Bloomfield Hills Names Fire Board

(Concluded from Page 1)

Plans will be made to confer with William G. Olson, Birmingham fire chief, to obtain information on the organization of a department. The group is authorized to decide the amount necessary and make volunteer arrangements.

Concluded from Page 1

Dr. Manuiloff, a Russian scientist, has had an important and significant discovery which suggests steel in minerals.

Conklin Will Filed

Death Of Hills Man Reveals Charities

The will of Millard T. Conklin, who lived in the village of Bloomfield Hills, east Woodward avenue and Cranbrook road, was filed in probate court, Pontiac, today.

The will names Mrs. Conklin and Detroit & Security Trust company as executors and trustees. On petition of Mrs. Conklin, the Detroit & Security Trust company was appointed special administrator.

Gift to Hospital

Mr. Conklin makes a gift of $25,000 to Grace Hospital, Detroit, having been member of the board of trustees since the organization.

NEW TYPE BUS STARTS TRIP

(Concluded from Page 1)

Penalty Not Affected This will not affect the service between Big Ten and Pontiac per se.

The schedule announced is as follows: Leave Birmingham at Oak street daily at 7:02 a. m. and every 15 minutes thereafter until 8:47 a. m.

Active in Detroit

"Mr. Conklin was one of the strongest business men who were most active a little over a quarter of a century ago in Detroit's present wonderful industrial growth and prosperity.

Village Scouts At Work On Toys

(Concluded from Page 1)

The local Scout Council in some of its individual troop projects, will not seat comfortably more than 250 people.

Concluded from Page 1

The owner of a piece of real estate every year upon it, and all its branches no matter where it emerges from the soil whether remote from its boundary line.

FIREMEN GIVE ANNUAL DINNER

The annual rabbit dinner of the firemen and policemen was held last night in the fire station.

Concluded from Page 1

Members of the village committee were invited to the dinner with their wives and friends and relatives of the members of both the fire and police departments also were guests.

Concluded from Page 1

Members of the village committee were invited to the dinner with their wives and friends and relatives of the members of both the fire and police departments also were guests.

Concluded from Page 1

Members of the village committee were invited to the dinner with their wives and friends and relatives of the members of both the fire and police departments also were guests.

DEFENDERS OF DOUBLE NET CROWN

FROM THE ECCENTRIC COLUMNS—of Long Ago

80 YEARS AGO

Nort McHenry has a lantern for sale. A cold morning and some snow last Monday.

A new water cooler at the D and M depot is the latest improvement. Johnnie Dwyer who shot his finger off during a fit of absent-mindedness is rapidly recovering.

We felt just as if we were "sun punned" last week when Mark Hollister of Royal Oak, brought us in a couple weighing about 115 lbs. in the aggregate.

The tearing down of the old barn on what is known as the Wallace place, removes one of the first school houses in this village and stood close to the street.

Joseph Donaldson, a son of John Donaldson of Troy, raised a "right smart" crop of peanuts, and harvested his crop last week which yielded well.

The man who found Wm. Smith's cider barrel, in the road and put it into L. A. Randall's back yard and afterward took it away in his buggy.

Frank Lowe's a fine young man employed by Wm. Smith, at his cider mill stepped off from a bridge in the dark late Monday night and was severely injured.

Supreme Court refuses an order presented by the Supervisors from southern Oakland County to prevent the great increase in property valuation.

Red Cross Roll Call draws under the direction of Mrs. Louis Tipton and Thomas H. Cobb.

85 YEARS AGO

College students were home for the Thanksgiving vacation. It is reported that Halloween's lads will all pass their fires in nickles.

Willis B. Carter and his estimable wife celebrated the 25th anniversary of their wedding day on Saturday evening last. Many friends were present.

A Franklin man went with his wife to visit her physician. The doctor placed a thermometer in the woman's mouth. After two or three minutes, just as the physician was about to remove the instrument, the man who was not used to such a prolonged spell of being ill, said to the doctor, "What life partner, said: 'to obtain, what will you take for that thing?'"

The tearing down of the old barn on what is known as the Wallace place, removes one of the first school houses in this village and stood close to the street.

Joseph Donaldson, a son of John Donaldson of Troy, raised a "right smart" crop of peanuts, and harvested his crop last week which yielded well.

The man who found Wm. Smith's cider barrel, in the road and put it into L. A. Randall's back yard and afterward took it away in his buggy.

Frank Lowe's a fine young man employed by Wm. Smith, at his cider mill stepped off from a bridge in the dark late Monday night and was severely injured.

Supreme Court refuses an order presented by the Supervisors from southern Oakland County to prevent the great increase in property valuation.

Red Cross Roll Call draws under the direction of Mrs. Louis Tipton and Thomas H. Cobb.

90 YEARS AGO

College students were home for the Thanksgiving vacation. It is reported that Halloween's lads will all pass their fires in nickles.

Willis B. Carter and his estimable wife celebrated the 25th anniversary of their wedding day on Saturday evening last. Many friends were present.

A Franklin man went with his wife to visit her physician. The doctor placed a thermometer in the woman's mouth. After two or three minutes, just as the physician was about to remove the instrument, the man who was not used to such a prolonged spell of being ill, said to the doctor, "What life partner, said: 'to obtain, what will you take for that thing?'"

The tearing down of the old barn on what is known as the Wallace place, removes one of the first school houses in this village and stood close to the street.

Joseph Donaldson, a son of John Donaldson of Troy, raised a "right smart" crop of peanuts, and harvested his crop last week which yielded well.

The man who found Wm. Smith's cider barrel, in the road and put it into L. A. Randall's back yard and afterward took it away in his buggy.

Frank Lowe's a fine young man employed by Wm. Smith, at his cider mill stepped off from a bridge in the dark late Monday night and was severely injured.

Supreme Court refuses an order presented by the Supervisors from southern Oakland County to prevent the great increase in property valuation.

Red Cross Roll Call draws under the direction of Mrs. Louis Tipton and Thomas H. Cobb.

Captain Wilbur Cummins, left, of Purdue, and Captain Dale Wells, right, of Indiana, will lead the two schools in defense of their championship in Big Ten basketball this season.

PRESIDENT-ELECT HOOVER WORSHIPS AT SMALL CHURCH

The Friends' Church at 1817 I message to impart. One of the Street, Washington, where President-elect Hoover usually worships, will not seat comfortably more than 250 people.

There are no restrictions made upon the length nor the subject matter of the speakers who feel called upon to give testimony. In keeping with the Quaker custom, the building is entirely bare. It is no pulpit, choir organ or altar.

Concluded from Page 1

Members of the village committee were invited to the dinner with their wives and friends and relatives of the members of both the fire and police departments also were guests.

Concluded from Page 1

Members of the village committee were invited to the dinner with their wives and friends and relatives of the members of both the fire and police departments also were guests.

Concluded from Page 1

Members of the village committee were invited to the dinner with their wives and friends and relatives of the members of both the fire and police departments also were guests.

Concluded from Page 1

Members of the village committee were invited to the dinner with their wives and friends and relatives of the members of both the fire and police departments also were guests.

Concluded from Page 1

Members of the village committee were invited to the dinner with their wives and friends and relatives of the members of both the fire and police departments also were guests.

Concluded from Page 1

Members of the village committee were invited to the dinner with their wives and friends and relatives of the members of both the fire and police departments also were guests.

Concluded from Page 1

Members of the village committee were invited to the dinner with their wives and friends and relatives of the members of both the fire and police departments also were guests.

Concluded from Page 1

Members of the village committee were invited to the dinner with their wives and friends and relatives of the members of both the fire and police departments also were guests.

FROM THE ECCENTRIC COLUMNS—of Long Ago

80 YEARS AGO

Nort McHenry has a lantern for sale. A cold morning and some snow last Monday.

A new water cooler at the D and M depot is the latest improvement. Johnnie Dwyer who shot his finger off during a fit of absent-mindedness is rapidly recovering.

We felt just as if we were "sun punned" last week when Mark Hollister of Royal Oak, brought us in a couple weighing about 115 lbs. in the aggregate.

The tearing down of the old barn on what is known as the Wallace place, removes one of the first school houses in this village and stood close to the street.

Joseph Donaldson, a son of John Donaldson of Troy, raised a "right smart" crop of peanuts, and harvested his crop last week which yielded well.

The man who found Wm. Smith's cider barrel, in the road and put it into L. A. Randall's back yard and afterward took it away in his buggy.

Frank Lowe's a fine young man employed by Wm. Smith, at his cider mill stepped off from a bridge in the dark late Monday night and was severely injured.

Supreme Court refuses an order presented by the Supervisors from southern Oakland County to prevent the great increase in property valuation.

Red Cross Roll Call draws under the direction of Mrs. Louis Tipton and Thomas H. Cobb.

85 YEARS AGO

College students were home for the Thanksgiving vacation. It is reported that Halloween's lads will all pass their fires in nickles.

Willis B. Carter and his estimable wife celebrated the 25th anniversary of their wedding day on Saturday evening last. Many friends were present.

A Franklin man went with his wife to visit her physician. The doctor placed a thermometer in the woman's mouth. After two or three minutes, just as the physician was about to remove the instrument, the man who was not used to such a prolonged spell of being ill, said to the doctor, "What life partner, said: 'to obtain, what will you take for that thing?'"

The tearing down of the old barn on what is known as the Wallace place, removes one of the first school houses in this village and stood close to the street.

Joseph Donaldson, a son of John Donaldson of Troy, raised a "right smart" crop of peanuts, and harvested his crop last week which yielded well.

The man who found Wm. Smith's cider barrel, in the road and put it into L. A. Randall's back yard and afterward took it away in his buggy.

Frank Lowe's a fine young man employed by Wm. Smith, at his cider mill stepped off from a bridge in the dark late Monday night and was severely injured.

Supreme Court refuses an order presented by the Supervisors from southern Oakland County to prevent the great increase in property valuation.

Red Cross Roll Call draws under the direction of Mrs. Louis Tipton and Thomas H. Cobb.

90 YEARS AGO

College students were home for the Thanksgiving vacation. It is reported that Halloween's lads will all pass their fires in nickles.

Willis B. Carter and his estimable wife celebrated the 25th anniversary of their wedding day on Saturday evening last. Many friends were present.

A Franklin man went with his wife to visit her physician. The doctor placed a thermometer in the woman's mouth. After two or three minutes, just as the physician was about to remove the instrument, the man who was not used to such a prolonged spell of being ill, said to the doctor, "What life partner, said: 'to obtain, what will you take for that thing?'"

The tearing down of the old barn on what is known as the Wallace place, removes one of the first school houses in this village and stood close to the street.

Joseph Donaldson, a son of John Donaldson of Troy, raised a "right smart" crop of peanuts, and harvested his crop last week which yielded well.

The man who found Wm. Smith's cider barrel, in the road and put it into L. A. Randall's back yard and afterward took it away in his buggy.

Frank Lowe's a fine young man employed by Wm. Smith, at his cider mill stepped off from a bridge in the dark late Monday night and was severely injured.

Supreme Court refuses an order presented by the Supervisors from southern Oakland County to prevent the great increase in property valuation.

Red Cross Roll Call draws under the direction of Mrs. Louis Tipton and Thomas H. Cobb.

Advertisement for HUSTON HARDWARE. The ad features a large, stylized 'H' logo at the top. Below it, the text reads 'A YEAR-LONG CHRISTMAS' in large, bold letters. Underneath, it says 'FOR the kind of wife who deserves the best Christmas offers... one should select a gift that is useful. Such a gift can also be a thing of beauty... a gift that she will be glad to receive. Illustrated here are just a few suggestions... there are many, many more in our store.' The ad lists several products: 'Royal Rochester Waffle Iron' priced at $10 to $20; 'Toaster' priced at $12.50; 'Royal Rochester Coffee Urn Set' priced at $15 up; and 'Hoover Sweeper' priced at $59.50 and $75. The ad also includes a small illustration of a vacuum cleaner and a waffle iron. At the bottom, the address '123 N. WOODWARD' and phone number 'PHONE 110-W' are listed.