CAGERS WIN FIRST START

Lake Shore High Bows Before Engels Men in Opener

The Baldwin High School basketball team made its first entry in the win column by defeating Lake Shore High School at St. Clair Shores, Tuesday afternoon. The score was 27-15.

The room quieted opened the first half against the Shore five in a ragged fashion, by failing in passing and talking field goals. All of the home team's scoring was accomplished in the first half and they led the Baldwinites by one point at the half. The score was 9-8.

Fast Attack

Nineteen points along with a dozen substitutions were made in the second half by Coach Ernest Engel's cagers. The Maroon attack was smoothed out considerably and Lake Shore was unable to stop the barrage of tries at the hoop. Most of the second half points made by the home players were from the foul line.

Cox was the high scorer of the game with five field goals to his credit. H. Schwarz followed him with three. R. Schwartz was the only other to make good on more than one shot, having scored two goals.

SPEAKER

Rogers was the leading point-maker for the Lake Shore squad. He scored two goals and two free throws. Guim was next with one goal and two points from the foul line.

Pontiac Next

The villagers meet Pontiac tomorrow night in the Pontiac High School gymnasium at 7 p. m. Both first and second team matches are scheduled. Tuesday the first game on the home court will be played with Hazel Park and Thursday the cagers meet the Alumni to finish up a quartet of season-long games before Christmas in preparation for the league schedule which starts at Mt. Clemens, Jan. 4.

The Pontiac squad entered a strenuous week of training Mon-

STUDENT PLANS ARE PRAISED

Members of Baldwin Junior High are showing keen interest in the extended "student participation" program this year, says Mrs. Edith Waterman, Junior High session room teacher.

Introduced a year ago by Mrs. Waterman, the program included only the seventh grade. This year it has been greatly extended and includes also the eighth and ninth grades.

"Student participation" is a system of self-government, the student council is composed of a boy and a girl representative from each class, and officers elected from the entire student membership. This council discusses with their faculty advisors and Principals Melvin C. Hart various projects to be put into practice.

At the Junior High assembly last Friday, campaign speeches were delivered by Aley Hoover, Walter Conwell, David Johnson and Carolyn Salisbury on behalf of their respective choices for presidential candidates.

SOUTHEASTERN LEAGUE MEMBERS IN MEETING

A meeting of the representatives of the Southeastern Athletic association, which Birmingham is a member, was held at River Rouge Monday afternoon.

The league championship for 1929 schedule planned. Mt. Clemens and Monroe, teams which tied for first place in the league, were awarded trophies.

At this time also Ecorse was admitted into the following division of the league. Although this admission was made Monday it will not take place legally until the beginning of the 1930 basketball season. While Birmingham plays in basketball this winter, it will not affect Birmingham's S. E. A. A. standing. Dinner was served at River Rouge High School.

Ernest Engel, basketball and assistant football coach here, was Birmingham's representative at the meeting.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB TO GIVE PROGRAM

Members of the Girls' Glee club of Baldwin High School, under the direction of Miss Mae E. Brumsted, will present the Christmas cantata, "The Wonderful Story by Konitz," at the First Baptist Church Sunday at 7:30 p. m. The girls have been working hard and large attendance is expected for this performance, it is said.

The Hill School reports the highest percentage of attendance and punctuality for any Birmingham grade school for the past marking period, says Mrs. Wynne B. Eastman, principal. The percentage recorded is 96.5.
