DEBATERS SCORE ANOTHER WIN

Although they had no practice since Thanksgiving, and despite the fact that two members of the team were confined to their homes all week owing to illness, the Baldwin High School debating team was awarded a unanimous decision over their opponents, Mt. Clemens, when the two teams met in the local high school last Friday afternoon.

fended the negative side of the ship subsidy question, while Harvey Lavigne, Manley Sampson, and Alice Kelley, the members of the Bath City team, took the affirmative. Olive Lockwood coached for Mt. Clemens, and H. Earle Corryont for Birmingham. This is the third consecutive league debate in which the Birmingham team has been victorious. Their next final elimination foreign clash will be held Jan. 11 with Ypsilanti at Ypsilanti. At that time the Birmingham team will uphold the affirmative side of the question.

FOOTBALL DANCE, BANQUET END SUCCESSFUL YEAR AT BALDWIN

Seventeen football men received varsity letters at the annual football dance given by the board of education at Baldwin High school Friday evening.

Approximately 200 senior high school students and many parents and faculty members were present at the colorful affair.

All the motion pictures taken of the games during the season by the Karsky-Eccentric photographers were shown in the auditorium as the closing feature of the dance.

Coach George Johnson made the letter words to the gridlers. "The varsity letters are the only tangible reward the boys receive for their efforts in football and it is with considerable pleasure that I make the presentation to boys who have worked diligently to 'earn them,'" Mr. Johnson said. He also spoke in praise of Roderick Cox who was mentioned for the third all-state team by George Lawton and Frederick Remington, state officials.

The boys to receive "B's" are Capt. Cox, Capt.-elect Herman Schwarze, Donald Gore, Floyd and David Doherty, George Wasey, Elmer Root, Ray Mix, Edward Kurba, Thomas Ellerby, Ralph Schwartz, Stewart Rainey, Donald McDonald, James Brien, Calvin Morgan, Alfred Pote, Douglas Berger and Morgan Carter, manager.

Monograms were given to James Winborn, Stanley Turner, Edwin Deer, Robert Voss, Thomas Neal, Richard Ellerby, Forest Fowler, William Dixon, Phillip DeBeaubien, Knowles Wilson, David Wygant, Thomas Martin and Donald McClelland.

Awards of letters in cross country were made by Coach Ernest Engel, Captain Alfred Myers, Capt.-elect Frederick Robins, Floyd Dennis and James Spence received letters. John Parks was given a manager's letter and Hartwell Leid and Harry Winborn received monograms.

Expressions of commendation and impromptu speeches by many of the guests featured the football banquet given by the mothers of the players at Baldwin High School, Thursday evening.

Eighty persons were present. This included 40 guests comprising the football squad and its associates, and 40 fathers and mothers.

Coach George F. Johnson, was toastmaster. Short speeches in praise of the past grid season were made by Superintendent Clarence Vlist, Principal Melvin C. Hart, Coach Ernest Engel, Village President Harold T. Ferby and Howard M. Cox, father of Captain Roderick Cox.

Both Capt. Cox and Captain-elect Herman Schwarze made acknowledgements of support, praised Coach Johnson and reviewed the season. Mr. Johnson was presented with a handsome toilet set from the entire squad.

Each senior gridder was called on to say a few words and every boy introduced his mother.

Capt. Cox will be presented with a gold football following the customary procedure of honoring the captains.

Continuing the series of music appreciation programs broadcast every Friday morning by the New York Symphony Orchestra, Walter Danrosch, conductor, the program for the third and fourth grades, beginning at 11 a. m., will deal with "Nature in Music."

The numbers played to illustrate this phase of music will be: "At Bayreuth," from Peer Gynt Suite No. 1 (Grieg); "The Rain," (David); "Evening Song," (Schumann); "Polka," "Thunder and Lightning," (Strauss).

The Junior High program, starting at 11:30, will feature the organ, English horn, and bassoon. Included in the program will be "Aragonaire," from Carmen Suite No. 1 (Bizet); "Largo," from the New World Symphony (Dvorak); and "In the Hall of the Mountain King," Peer Gynt Suite No. 1, (Grieg).

45 CAGERS AT ADAMS REPORT

Wisemen Has To Shape New Team From Raw Material After Last Year's Graduation

A turnout of 45 men for basketball this season is announced today at Adams Junior High School by Elmer S. Wiseman, coach.

Three practices each week are being gone through in preparation for the tentative opening game on the regular schedule with Ferndale Junior High, there, Jan. 4, Mr. Wiseman announces.

"Adams lost most of her regular team by graduation last year," the coach says. "However, we have most of the reserves of the 1927 team left and plenty of new material from which we hope to make a winning squad for the coming season."

It is planned that several outside games will be scheduled for the team.

Among those out for the sport are Stuart Shell, Charles Tomes, Harry Whittaker, Frederick Schwarze, Fred Boynton, Richard Burnett, John Pratt, Richard Phillips, Harold Davis, Billy Howard, Donald Cummings, Raynal Kline, Eugene Smith, Gerald Anderson, Tom Schooley, Maurice Gosel, Charles Rose, Harry Showers, Warren Brown, Fred

Cushing, Robert Saborn, Rex Filkins, George McHugh, Francis Dixon, Alvin Harris, Tom Stoberg, Donald Parry, Donald Stewart, Billy Moss, and Henry Eggers. Most of these men have played for Adams before, and nearly all have had some basketball experience, here or elsewhere.

SENIORS START WORK FOR MINSTREL SHOW

The Senior Washington Group, under the direction of George Johnson, advisor, is starting practice this week for the annual minstrel show which will be presented Jan. 17.

It is said that many novel and entertaining features will appear on the program, one being an unusually fine orchestra.

Two faculty meetings were scheduled for Monday but, owing to the illness of Miss Evelyn Gray, Spanish instructor, who was in charge of the foreign language group, the meeting was postponed.

The subject for discussion is, "Teaching of Foreign Languages in High School." The meeting of the mathematics department, including all branches, was in charge of Miss Emily Walker.

The topic was "Drill Without Drudgery." Meetings of the various other branches of the profession have been planned for the coming year, it is announced by Melvin C. Hart, principal.
