LAFAYETTE
Ever since the days of "The Man From Home" William Hodge has been one of those stars who has enjoyed nationwide popularity. Season after season he has visited all the important cities of the United States until his name is now a household word. He is celebrating his twenty-first year on the American stage.

Although he has been on the stage 26 years, it was just 21 years ago, this month that "William Hodge" in electric lights appeared over the Astor Theatre, New York, for the first time. That was the commencement of his memorable six seasons in "The Man From Home." Mr. Hodge is now celebrating his coming-of-age as a star by presenting himself in "Straight Thru the Door" at the Shubert Lafayette for two weeks commencing Sunday, Dec. 9. "Straight Thru the Door" offers Mr. Hodge every opportunity to display his talents and personality. His role is that of an actor who is trying to complete a country home for himself and family during summer vacation.

While "Straight Thru the Door" deviates somewhat from Mr. Hodge's usual type of offering, in that it is a mystery comedy unfolding a murder story which promises both thrills and suspense, yet Mr. Hodge's well-known wit and quaint humor are

WE HEARD IT SAID BY—
Alan McGirr, local builder: "Members of the Birmingham Hunting club this year did not find it difficult to 'fill their license' with deer. I never saw so many deer as during the past season. Instead of a decline in number of deer in Michigan, I believe that there is a great increase. And you don't have to leave the Lower Peninsula to find them, either."

formance. They are playing with a burlesque road company. Act two transpires in a New York room where there is a party in progress. This is played to the accompaniment of jazz. It is here that a climax is reached when the comic, finding that his life has completely lost faith in him and is about to leave him for the Westener, extemporizes a out of the wedding march and whirls himself out of the room. The last act is in a theatre in Paterson, closing with the show as seen from "out front." A replica of a burlesque performance is given in its entirety.

LAWRENCE BROTHERS IN NEW QUARTERS

Lawrence brothers brake service garage is now located in its new quarters at 534 south Woodward avenue. The change of location was made Monday, by the owners, Ray and Lynn Lawrence. The new building is owned by Morris Levison and was constructed by Glenn Rutter.

The former location on Pierce street is now used for a service garage in conjunction with the Hupp mobile sales company managed by Ray V. Orsman.

Mrs. Jane Mandeville of Port Crane, N. Y., will cast her first vote on her 99th birthday, there by laying claim to being the oldest new voter in the country.

Robert Berkley of Wichita, Kan., after pleading guilty to guilty to stealing a car, was freed because he had a perfect Sunday school attendance for 10 years.

Joseph Moore of East Dulwich, Eng., died at the age of 100, although when only two years old physicians said he could not outlive infancy.

Quality Service is the most important consideration in selecting a funeral director. Price is the second consideration; but it is an extremely important one, just the same.

Our policy in regard to price is very simple. The Symbol of Service on the right explains it. We give our best regardless of circumstances.

Everybody can have money for Christmas

It's Simple and Easy

JOIN OUR

CHRISTMAS CLUB

NOW OPEN

Dad should join. He has a big Christmas list—not to mention taxes, insurance and big expenses coming due. Mother can manage to put aside a little each week from the household money, without missing it. The children may not have more than a quarter a week to put away, but what fun it will be for them to have their own big check at Christmas! It's a fine way to teach them the thrift habit, too.

Just a little each week for 50 weeks, and then in a lump sum, you get it all back in one check, in ample time for Christmas spending.

It adds up quickly if you put it in a Christmas Club.
