GOVERNOR AL "OUTPLAYS" BOBBY

Bobby Jones, the Atlanta golf wizard, and Governor Alfred E. Smith, of New York, snapped at the East Lake Country Club, Atlanta, Ga., where they were partners in a golf foursome. According to a score card kept by Senator Pat Harrison, the governor turned in a better score than Jones, but spectators attributed the score to the congressional methods of tallying strokes.

DEER HUNTERS GIVEN PRAISE

Lansing, Dec. 5.—H. M. Agler, assistant chief conservation officer for the department of conservation, believes deer hunters in Michigan during the season which just closed were not guilty of breaking the laws to any great degree. The record accomplished in the district where Agler had direction of the game wardens would indicate this.

Last year this particular section yielded 32 does, all seized from hunters who chose to break Michigan's buck law. Such activity demanded attention. Agler Goblier.

took over the direction of the work in that section this season with the result that only one doe and one fawn were seized.

Use of the fire wardens as assistants to game wardens in the deer hunting country has helped greatly, Agler believes. Men who fight the forest fires are required to know every inch of their territory and this knowledge is invaluable in covering the district during the hunting season.
