

FIFTIETH YEAR—NO. 44

BIRMINGHAM, OAKLAND COUNTY, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1928

$1.50 PER YEAR—SINGLE COPIES 5c

Great Liberator Takes New Role

You Can Hang Out the Flag For Henry Ha... Saved The Village
By RAYMOND GIRARDIN
Birmingham is saved. Yes, kiddies, you may throw away your pop guns and shillelaghs and be glad to see any more bogie man. Your worries are over. They were banished on St. Valentine's Day by a new Liberator.

NO-STOP DRIVE STARTS HERE MONDAY NOON

Smiling Billy Burton To Try For New Endurance Record
IS UNDER OBSERVANCE
Smiling Billy Burton will start his five day non stop drive through the streets of Birmingham at noon Monday from Maple and Woodward avenues after being handed to the wheel of his Whippet sedan, it is announced today as plans for the drive are completed.

VIET EXPLAINS STAND ON GOLF

Students will have a chance to join the intricacies of the golf game indoors when the next high school building in Birmingham goes up, says superintendent Clarence D. Hays today. The subject of what the future holds for high school building construction.

MANY SPEAKERS LISTED FOR CHURCHES GIVING PROGRAMS FOR ANNUAL OBSERVANCE IN VILLAGE

Final plans for the Father and Son celebration today are completed by village churches interested in making this year's event the "greatest ever."

MIKE PATTERNS AFTER OMAR AND IS JAILED

Because Mike liked to ride in taxis and because he failed to remember that this is expensive he is serving 10 days in the Oakland County Jail at Pontiac today.

TRAVEL VICTIM IS REPORTED CONVASCESCING

Hurled 50 Feet As Engine Strikes His Car, Worker Expected To Live
INVESTIGATION PENDING
Hurled 50 feet when a Grand Trunk passenger train struck his automobile at the Starr road and Howard avenue, Charles Revald, 38 years old, employee of the Detroit Edison company of Birmingham is recovering today at the St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

Circuit Judge Decides Against Men Who Sought To Delay Construction; Final Bubble Of Obstructionists Burst

With the final bubble of the obstructionists burst by a circuit court decision, contractors are ready today to begin work in earnest on the new Municipal building in the first block of the civic center. The commission last night signed the contracts and approved the bonds.

CHURCH GROUP OPPOSES PLAN FOR 'BIG U. S. NAVY' PROGRAM

The proposed plan for creating a "big navy" which involves the expenditure of approximately $30,000,000 by the United States government is condemned today by a resolution approved in full by the First Baptist Church here of which Rev. D. J. Woodward is pastor.

PREPARE FINAL WRIT

Recommendations from the city village committee on retaining the village form of government here are expected to be made next week after committee members have had a chance to study the reports, it was indicated last night.

LAST MINUTE PETITION RUSH IS EXPECTED

Two Commission Candidates Are Only Ones To File
SATURDAY LAST DAY
With four petitions for nominations already filed and four others in circulation, several more are expected before the close of the day.

SAVED FROM FLAMES

Head-On Woodward Collision Led To Heavy Fog; Rescue Quick
Saved by passersby when his car collided with another and burst into flames on Woodward avenue at the Thirteenth Mile road Tuesday evening, Charles Revald, 38 years old, employee of the Detroit Edison company of Birmingham is recovering today at the St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

INJURY RESULTS IN DEATH OF BOY

Charles Upward, Junior High Athlete, To High After Game
Charles H. Upward, 12 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Upward, 510 Paray street, died late Tuesday night in Harpers hospital here after an operation weeks' illness. Bone infection setting in after an injury in a football game was given as the cause of death.

DEBATORS ENTER FINAL SERIES

State Championship Honors, Lean At Club Luncheon
The Birmingham Debating team, which has survived elimination in the first series of debates and is one of the 64 schools which remains in the running of the state championship competes in the first of the final seven eliminations today at 2 p. m. at Baldwin High School.

WOMAN GUILTY OF VIOLATION

Awaits Sentence In Circuit Court For Selling Liquor In Birmingham
Mrs. Bertha Melvin, formerly of 412 E. Buford street, is charged with selling liquor in violation of the prohibition law. She is to be sentenced April 1.

WOMAN GUILTY OF VIOLATION

Awaits Sentence In Circuit Court For Selling Liquor In Birmingham
Mrs. Bertha Melvin, formerly of 412 E. Buford street, is charged with selling liquor in violation of the prohibition law. She is to be sentenced April 1.

LIBRARY TO REMAIN OPEN ON SUNDAYS

Beginning Feb. 26, the Baldwin Public Library will be open to the reading public every day of the week, including Sunday.

FROM "HAP" TO "HAPPY"

Little Susan Elizabeth Ryan, who came into this world Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at Ford Hospital, Detroit, is ready on the road to fame—that is, if one may consider the name in the name of the drama as so early an age as being a portent to the future.

WOMAN GUILTY OF VIOLATION

Awaits Sentence In Circuit Court For Selling Liquor In Birmingham
Mrs. Bertha Melvin, formerly of 412 E. Buford street, is charged with selling liquor in violation of the prohibition law. She is to be sentenced April 1.

WOMAN GUILTY OF VIOLATION

Awaits Sentence In Circuit Court For Selling Liquor In Birmingham
Mrs. Bertha Melvin, formerly of 412 E. Buford street, is charged with selling liquor in violation of the prohibition law. She is to be sentenced April 1.

WOMAN GUILTY OF VIOLATION

Awaits Sentence In Circuit Court For Selling Liquor In Birmingham
Mrs. Bertha Melvin, formerly of 412 E. Buford street, is charged with selling liquor in violation of the prohibition law. She is to be sentenced April 1.

WOMAN GUILTY OF VIOLATION

Awaits Sentence In Circuit Court For Selling Liquor In Birmingham
Mrs. Bertha Melvin, formerly of 412 E. Buford street, is charged with selling liquor in violation of the prohibition law. She is to be sentenced April 1.

WOMAN GUILTY OF VIOLATION

Awaits Sentence In Circuit Court For Selling Liquor In Birmingham
Mrs. Bertha Melvin, formerly of 412 E. Buford street, is charged with selling liquor in violation of the prohibition law. She is to be sentenced April 1.

WOMAN GUILTY OF VIOLATION

Awaits Sentence In Circuit Court For Selling Liquor In Birmingham
Mrs. Bertha Melvin, formerly of 412 E. Buford street, is charged with selling liquor in violation of the prohibition law. She is to be sentenced April 1.

WOMAN GUILTY OF VIOLATION

Awaits Sentence In Circuit Court For Selling Liquor In Birmingham
Mrs. Bertha Melvin, formerly of 412 E. Buford street, is charged with selling liquor in violation of the prohibition law. She is to be sentenced April 1.

WOMAN GUILTY OF VIOLATION

Awaits Sentence In Circuit Court For Selling Liquor In Birmingham
Mrs. Bertha Melvin, formerly of 412 E. Buford street, is charged with selling liquor in violation of the prohibition law. She is to be sentenced April 1.

WOMAN GUILTY OF VIOLATION

Awaits Sentence In Circuit Court For Selling Liquor In Birmingham
Mrs. Bertha Melvin, formerly of 412 E. Buford street, is charged with selling liquor in violation of the prohibition law. She is to be sentenced April 1.

WOMAN GUILTY OF VIOLATION

Awaits Sentence In Circuit Court For Selling Liquor In Birmingham
Mrs. Bertha Melvin, formerly of 412 E. Buford street, is charged with selling liquor in violation of the prohibition law. She is to be sentenced April 1.

WOMAN GUILTY OF VIOLATION

Awaits Sentence In Circuit Court For Selling Liquor In Birmingham
Mrs. Bertha Melvin, formerly of 412 E. Buford street, is charged with selling liquor in violation of the prohibition law. She is to be sentenced April 1.

WOMAN GUILTY OF VIOLATION

Awaits Sentence In Circuit Court For Selling Liquor In Birmingham
Mrs. Bertha Melvin, formerly of 412 E. Buford street, is charged with selling liquor in violation of the prohibition law. She is to be sentenced April 1.

WOMAN GUILTY OF VIOLATION

Awaits Sentence In Circuit Court For Selling Liquor In Birmingham
Mrs. Bertha Melvin, formerly of 412 E. Buford street, is charged with selling liquor in violation of the prohibition law. She is to be sentenced April 1.

WOMAN GUILTY OF VIOLATION

Awaits Sentence In Circuit Court For Selling Liquor In Birmingham
Mrs. Bertha Melvin, formerly of 412 E. Buford street, is charged with selling liquor in violation of the prohibition law. She is to be sentenced April 1.

WOMAN GUILTY OF VIOLATION

Awaits Sentence In Circuit Court For Selling Liquor In Birmingham
Mrs. Bertha Melvin, formerly of 412 E. Buford street, is charged with selling liquor in violation of the prohibition law. She is to be sentenced April 1.