WE HEARD SAID BY: George H. Mickel, 110 Brown street. "Birmingham has never until this theater came to town, had a name that has been so widely shown to the world like it does right now every day in the week. Vertical in bright letters at least in size 4x40 feet commands your sight and surprise. Then again, El-Robinson-H-A-M, horizontally about 3x30 feet, both helping to make the front of the theater, dignified and brilliant. And these words with many beautiful colored electric light bulbs, over 2000 of them make Woodward Avenue bright and light for many blocks, while the front of the building, with its bright, brilliant, glittering, scintillating, radiant, flashing, gleaming and resplendent lights makes a sight beautiful to behold and to contemplate. We are proud of it all. The building inside and out for its elegance and handsome appearance. In size it is only second to the Michigan and Oriental theaters in Detroit, and for comfort and seating capacity, these theaters are the only ones in the state of Michigan that exceed it, that I have seen. The entertainment offered is also second to none in the whole state. The pictures being in some cases the very films that are offered in Detroit at the Michigan, Capitol and the Adams. Verily, we are blessed."
