GIRL CAGERS WIN ANOTHER

Berkley Turned Back By 46-10 Score In Village Gym; 2nd Team Loses

By piling up a huge lead and adding to it throughout the contest the Baldwin girl cagers swamped the Berkley sextet last Friday on the high school floor with a score of 46-10.

team's star forward making a total of 16 points while Tankin and Malita were responsible for Berkley's scoring.

The reserve-team lineup was the following:

J. Brooks R.F. R. Tankin M. Pullin L.F. S. Malita B. Bell W.C. M. Wood V. Thomas S.C. B. Swayer W. Sterling R.G. M. Hughes M. Coryell L.G. M. McNabb

Substitutions: Woodward for Bell, R. Carr for Thomas. Coach Helen McIntyre's girl proteges go to Halfway tomorrow afternoon to play the high school team there.

LIBRARY OF SCHOOL RECEIVES BOOK GIFT

A gift to the school library in the form of a set of books entitled "Birds of California," and valued at $300, was presented to the Franklin School recently by Mrs. Ellen Scripps of LaJolla, Cal.

Carpenier R. Hewitt, son of Mrs. Virginia L. Hewitt of Oakland avenue, has been elected treasurer of the debating society, Alpha Nu, at the University of Michigan where he is a first year student.

Hewitt was prominent in debating circles of Baldwin High School last year. He is also on the Freshman debating team of the society.

The results of the debate were 23-18 with Berkley in the lead. M. Pullin was the home team while a student there.

ENROLLMENT SETS RECORD

Adams Junior High Reports 15 Per Cent Gain In Attendance

A 15 per cent gain in enrollment has been noted in the number of students enrolled in the Adams Junior High School this semester, it is announced today. Previously 155 students were on the roll. Thirty-two entered and sixteen students left at the beginning of this and the ending of the last semester, leaving a total of 171 students in the junior high school. Approximately 500 students are enrolled in the grade division of the school.

ART CLASS NOW IS WORKING ON SCHOOL ANNUAL

HI-Y MEETS

The Hi-Y club held its regular meeting Thursday noon at Baldwin High School. Contributions were made by the members for a football scorebook which is planned. The meeting was in charge of Oak De Berg who led a discussion on "Gambling."

CHEMISTRY

The making of soap, ink, muffs and vanilla were among the experiments conducted in the chemistry laboratory at Baldwin High School last week. These features are reported to have made the work especially interesting for the students.

JUNIOR HIGH LEAGUE PRELIMINARY GAMES PLAYED HERE TUESDAY

Preliminary games of the Junior High-Inter-School in both light and heavy weight classes were played Tuesday afternoon at Adams School. The four games of the league were played as usual in the Junior High gymnasium, while the Lions and the Falcons met in the grade gymnasium.

It is not known yet whether the semi-finals will be held, but they will be announced later.

A cup will be presented to the winning team in the heavyweight class, but it has not been decided that one will likewise be awarded to the junior class.

Adams Lions-10; Baldwin Falcons 5

The Lions eliminated the Falcons in a one-sided game, as the latter was short both its guards, and consequently was at a disadvantage. The other lightweight team, the Cubs, is not regarded as a very serious competitor, and it should prove quite easy for the Lions to capture the championship.

A new player, Stewart, was in the Lions' lineup Tuesday. Stewart formerly played in the Junior High, but moved to Highland and did not return until the beginning of this semester.

According to Coach Merlyn Smith a valuable addition to the team. He is the biggest man on the light squad, in fact, comes in at 175 pounds, and is a fine basketball player.

Baldwin Briefs

Maybe you think sleds are extinct in Birmingham. Well, they aren't. Of course they take care to skulk about the side streets, carefully avoiding the thoroughfares of their more aristocratic brethren, the automobiles, but just the same they have real runners and are drawn by honest-to-goodness horses.

The word "locks" in lockers is passed as far as the starting of Baldwin High School are concerned. No one bothers about keeping their lock and key and what more, the sheepskins of boys chum with the "dog-eared" covers. The long hallway lined on either side with gapping lockers, wraps draped over a row of lockers, is a common sight at Baldwin High School.

BALDWIN FIVE IN EASY WIN

Birmingham downed the Rochester basketball team for the third time this season in the Willetts street bridge and the No. 10 bridge. Bring up to date signs to this effect will be placed on the bridge."

Birmingham's rapid passing enabled them to outdistance the Rochester players in jumping the hoop. Captain Thomson was high in scoring with eight points while Peterson, forward, compiled seven for the Harmon cagers.

Parker, Rochester center, was his team's high scorer with six points. Most of Birmingham's caging was done in the fourth quarter, although the reserves did considerable in the second period.

ROTARIANS HIT SHADY METHODS

Under the direction of George Dettwiler, of Lakeside avenue, Rotarian, a program illustrating business methods and ethics was put on before the Birmingham Rotary club here at the Chateau Teak room Monday noon. Al Royal Oak Rotarians, staged a one-act playlet in which they excellently portrayed the devastating effects of unethical scheming.

Robert C. Peck, James W. Parry, and Charles J. Shain all gave short talks on business conduct during which they declared that the three elements of good salesmanship—completeness, confidence, and then contract, holding that the most important of the trio is confidence.

This shouldn't happen! It never can happen in Bloomfield Village

Sweeping changes are taking place in Detroit's neighborhoods that border on main business streets. Rooming houses, stores, apartment buildings are now right next to distinctive homes. They were proud residence streets once—but never properly restricted! One by one their "good families" have been forced to move.

Before you buy or build your new home consider this question: "Will this neighborhood always be desirable?" Judson Bradway developments are thoroughly protected by a "Building and Use Agreement." Thus the character of the neighborhood is permanently assured. The Bloomfield Village home owner has the comforting assurance that every new home built will increase the value of his property and the desirability of his neighborhood.

The "big game" of the afternoon when Deer Antlers defeated McClure's Panthers, who up to this time had not won a game, by the narrow margin of one goal and one free throw. Captain Deer, who was being saved for the Pontiac Eastern game yesterday, found it necessary to go on the floor in both the second and fourth periods. Deer, who has been rather severely criticized generally for his "one-man" playing, disproved all the statements that he couldn't pass the ball and gave every other member of the team fine chances. Although Kiley, who has been regarded as one of the Panthers' strong points, did not snare a single basket Tuesday, his brilliant offensive work showed him to be a real player. McClure, captain and center, also played a good game, controlling half the points.
