SOCIETY IN BIRMINGHAM AND THE HILLS

SHAW-SMITH NUPTIALS TO BE SATURDAY

Ceremony To Be Performed At Home Of Bride's Parents In Hills

DEAN WILL OFFICIATE

The culmination of many lovely pre-wedding parties will be Miss Elizabeth Shaw's marriage to George Wellington Smith, Saturday at 3 p. m. at "Whysall," the Bloomfield Hills home of the bride's mother, Mrs. John T. Shaw.

Miss Mary Adelle Shaw and Mrs. Frederick Latta Smith, Jr., sisters of the bride will be maid of honor and matron of honor, respectively. The best man is Brewster H. Shaw.

Officiating at the ceremony, which promises to be one of the most important social events of the Bloomfield Hills society, will be Dr. S. M. Marquis, rector of Christ Church, Cranbrook.

Out-of-town guests include Mr. and Mrs. Horace B. Pomeroy of Buffalo, N. Y., Mr. Pomeroy being Mrs. Shaw's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Hausse of Century, Fla., and Mr. and Mrs. William R. Shaw of Plymouth.

HOUSE OBSERVES TWELFTH NIGHT

Program Marks Observance Of Annual Occasion At Community House

Community spirit was the keynote of the Twelfth Night entertainment given at the Community House last Friday at 8 p. m. when Miss Agnes Halbert told the story of the Twelfth Night to some 50 guests and Mrs. Earl Potter led community singing of old time songs. Mrs. Donald Stanton was at the piano.

The guests were seated around the fireplace, all taking part in the burning of Christmas greens which they had brought with them.

GROUP HOLDS FIRST MEETING

The International Relations study group in charge of Mrs. Charles Shain of Pierce street held its first meeting of the year Tuesday at the Community House.

Suggested topics of serious study were "Versailles Treaty in the Geneva Conference" and "The League of Nations in the World War."

After the meeting, members left for the Hotel Statler, Detroit, where Dr. R. R. Niebuhr spoke to the club on "Economic America in an Economic World."

DR. NORTON IS MARRIED

Birmingham Man Weds Miss Dorothy Loehr Of Kirksville

Of more than local interest was the marriage Jan. 2 in Saginaw of Miss Dorothy Loehr of Kirksville, Mo., and Dr. G. R. Norton of Birmingham. The marriage took place at the home of Dr. Norton's mother, Mrs. G. R. Norton, Sr., in Saginaw.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Helen Loehr of Kirksville, Mo., accompanied her to Detroit where Dr Norton was waiting for them. From there the couple motored to Saginaw.

A graduate of the Kirksville high school, Mrs. Norton attended the Kirksville State Teacher's College for two years, being elected during that time to the Alpha Sigma Alpha Sorority.

Dr. Norton who attended the Kirksville College of Osteopathic Surgery, has been practicing in Birmingham since his graduation last year. During his four years at college Dr. Norton was prominent in athletics. His fraternity is the Phi Sigma Gamma.

Dr. and Mrs. Norton will make their home in Birmingham at 134 west Maple avenue.

LITERARY CLUB MEMBERS HEAR REPORTS ON CURRENT BOOKS

Books and authors of the moment were listed analyzed for the Woman's Literary club Tuesday afternoon both as subjects for the interesting program given by the literary department and as reports from the special committee on new books in the library. The meeting was held in the auditorium of the new Baldwin Public Library where it was decided future meetings of the club would be held.

Tea was served after the meeting in the east club room. Mrs. Milton R. Schatz was in charge of the afternoon's program with Mrs. H. T. Ellerby and Mrs. Floyd Logee assisting.

Mrs. Ellerby read a review of the life of Joseph Conrad and analyzed his work. Mrs. Logee presented Emil Ludwig, biographer, and compared his three most important books. Mrs. Schatz reviewed "Trader Horn" the much talked of book of African adventure. During the business meeting Mrs. Charles Taylor and Mrs. Claude Bowles reported the new books added to the public library during December and January and some of them were brought to the meeting for exhibit. Mrs. Virgil Lockrow and Mrs. Norman Lyle entertained during the program with music, Mrs. Lockrow singing "Salaam," an Oriental prayer and "Piper's Song" with Mrs. Lyle at the piano and Mrs. Lyle played some of the Brahms waltzes and the Gluck-Brahms Gavotte.

Mrs. Clarence Vliet reported for the art committee, giving a resume of lectures on miniatures which she attended at the Detroit Federation of Woman's clubs. Mrs. Sophia Case of the legislative committee, reported upon the national taxation program and the local teacher's pension act. Mrs. Fred S. Ross reported for the Sunshine committee upon the work done at Christmas time and Mrs. W. B. Brown read her list of committees for the bridge benefit which the club will give Feb. 22 in the Community House for the Student Loan Fund. Mrs. Retta Barr read the list of rules governing the rental of the library rooms, and it was voted to visit the Detroit Art Museum, the trip to be under the supervision of Mrs. Vliet and the date to be announced later.

The next meeting of the club will be in the library in charge of the American Home department and will be a social afternoon in charge of Mrs. Fred Crawford.
