John Patchett, Lydia Patchett, Plaintiffs, vs. Franklin Patrick, Mary Evans,

LEGAL NOTICES

James J. Davenport, Rhoda M. Davenport, or the unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns of each and every of them, Defendants.

On reading and filing the bill of complaint duly filed in said cause, and the affidavit of John Patchett, from which it satisfactorily appears to the Court that the defendants, above named, or their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns, are necessary and proper parties in the above entitled cause.

And it further appearing that after diligent search, inquiry and investigation it cannot be ascertained, and it is not known whether the persons named in said bill of complaint as defendants, or any of them, are living or dead, or where they may reside, if inclusive, and said line continued to the north section living, or whether the right, title, interest, claim, lien or possible right has been disposed of by Will; and further, that the present whereabouts of such persons, their heirs-at-law, personal representatives, devisees, legatees and assigns, are unknown and the Post Office addresses of none of them can be ascertained, nor can it be ascertained whether any of them are minors or incompetents, nor can the names of persons who are included as defendants therein without being named but who are embraced herein under the title, unknown heirs, be ascertained after diligent search and inquiry.

On motion of Patterson & Patterson, Attorneys for plaintiffs,

It is ordered that the appearance of each and all of the foregoing defendants be entered in this cause within three months from the date of this order, and in case of their appearance, or the appearance of any of them, that they cause their answer to the bill of complaint to be filed and a copy served upon the Attorneys for plaintiffs within fifteen days after service upon them, or their attorneys, of a copy of said bill, and in default thereof that said bill be taken as confessed by the said defendants who shall fail to comply with the requirements of this order.

It is further ordered that the said plaintiffs cause this Order to be published within forty days in the Birmingham Eccentric, a newspaper printed, published and circulating in said County, once in each week for six weeks in succession, or that plaintiffs cause a copy of this Order to be personally served upon each of said defendants herein at least twenty days before the time prescribed for his, her or their appearance.

FRANK L. COVERT,
Circuit Judge.

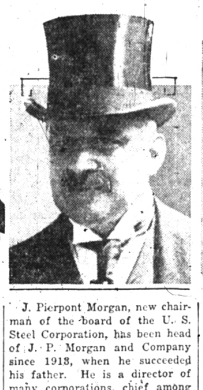
TRIUMVIRATE RULES BILLION DOLLAR CORPORATION

James A. Farrell, 64, as president of the U. S. Steel Corporation, is the second of the triumvirate guiding the destinies of the organization. He is known as a worker. Farrell rose from the ranks, beginning his career as a laborer in a steel wire mill at New Haven, Conn., at 16. Farrell is also a director of a number of corporations, including the American Bridge Company.



J. Pierpont Morgan, new chairman of the board of the U. S. Steel Corporation, has been head of J. P. Morgan and Company since 1918, when he succeeded his father. He is a director of many corporations, chief among which are the Aetna Insurance Company, Discount Corporation of New York, International Mercantile Marine Company, the Pullman Company, U. S. Steel and others. Morgan is 60.

Myron C. Taylor, new chairman of the finance committee of the U. S. Steel Corporation, is the third member of the triumvirate named to run the $2,500,000,000 corporation. He began practicing law in New York in 1894, later becoming identified with the cotton textile industry, building up various textile companies through consolidations. He is a director of railroads, banks and other corporations.
