

GIRL SCOUTS TO GIVE BENEFIT IN VILLAGE TODAY

Troop 2, of the Girl Scouts, will give a benefit at the home of Mrs. Clinton Sears, on Madison avenue, at 3:30 p. m. today. The tea is for raising money for a troop flag and equipment necessary for the Girl Scout demonstration to be held the second week in February. The troop is led by Miss Josephine Poor and Miss Lila Mergard, both of the Adams School, where the troop meets. Scouts of the troop will be responsible for refreshments and the serving, and are inviting three guests each. The troop committee, who will assist, is composed of Mrs. Sears, Mrs. J. Rodney Weeks, and Mrs. Lee A. White.

DATE CHANGED FOR LITERARY CLUB TEA

PLEA TO SUPPORT DRY LAW IS MADE

A repetition of the talk he gave at the First Methodist Episcopal Church Sunday afternoon, a part of a nationwide observance of the eighth anniversary of the passage of the Eighteenth Amendment, was given before the Exchange club Tuesday noon at Northwood inn, by George H. Averill, publisher of The Eccentric. Mr. Averill, who was invited to speak by Melvin C. Hart, principal of Baldwin High School, made a plea for the support and retention of the law, claiming that all new things are opposed when presented, and that posterity alone ought to be the judge of the lasting value of fundamental ethics. Dr. O. O. Beck was appointed on the club's airport committee, to assist during the absence of Robert Y. Moore, who is spending several weeks in Florida.
