ADAMS GIVES ANNUAL SHOW

Athletics Feature Program Of Students At School

Athletics featured the assembly program staged at the Adams School Friday. A combination of girl's and boy's athletics, the program is a part of the school's plan to demonstrate to the students, parents, and friends. Indian club drill, marching, calisthenic exercises, mat work and tumbling, and parallel bars made up the boy's work. A play entitled "A Child's Dream," in which a child, falling asleep, dreams that her doll has come to life and are performing for her, was the girls' contribution. Through this play, which embodies all the dancing and most of the physical work in Miss Jeanette Krickard's classes, the girls' work was demonstrated. With the exception of the annual exhibitions, this program, in charge of Miss Jeanette Krickard and A. L. Van Winkle, was the first of its kind ever held in Birmingham.

OVERTIME LENDS ZEST TO GAME

Adams Lions And Baldwin Falcons Play Out Exciting Quarter; Tigers, Antlers Win

Those who witnessed the game between the Adams Lions and the Baldwin Falcons Tuesday afternoon were unaware they were watching probably the season's most spectacular game until the last quarter which ran into three overtime periods, ending in a 2-1 victory for the Adams lightweights. The game, until the end of the last quarter at least, did not excite any particular comment. But at the end of the game, the spectators and players awakened to the fact that the score was tied 7-7, and that overtime play would be necessary. The entire overtime, consisting of six minutes, was marked by vicious selling which reached its peak when Anderson, Adams right forward, sunk a goal an instant before the final whistle. Both teams played a fast, clean and exciting game throughout. Each was almost more than a match for the other, and it was only his speed which permitted Anderson to break away from the Baldwin guard for the deciding point.

FALCONS (7): Thomas (RF), Jewell (C), Jewell (C), Hartley (RG), Meeker (LG), Anderson (3), Thomas, Jewell, Cunwell, Moss. Foul Goals: Anderson, Jewell, Foul: Meeker, Anderson, Moss.
