If you were in any doubt about the future of Birmingham's youth, if you were of the opinion the youth of the nation has going to the dogs because of a revolt, we are sure the questionniares you read in the last edition of The Eccentric filled out by the last editions class of the Baktwin High School put their to flight.

The students howed themselves to have a purpose In life. They were definite about what they intend so do, how they evaluated a college and high school education, find what they chought of the general system of education as they viewed it from their gastion.

Many of the students seemed to agree to a great power which was brought out in a general way in all the papers; that the schools can do. a great deal and that the rest remains with the individual.

Norman C. Orr's Candidacy

Oakland County will welcome today the announcement of Norman C. Orr as a candidate for the office of prosecuting attorfey.

Mr. Orr has been first assistant prosecuting attorney under Clyde D. Underwood for approximately one year. Prior to that time he was a member of the staff. During his sentre of office has distinguished himself time and again by his brilliance and fair-mindedness in handling case.

A great hare of the court work has been handled by Mr. Orr. He has gained the reputation of being one of the eleverest trial lawyers in the county.

The Oakland County, Bar Association approves his candidacy as do the hundreds of persons who have had direct dealing with him. It a through their urging that he has announced himself as a clandidate to succeed Mr. Underwood, who is not to be a candidate.

to success the value and didate.

We feel that Mr. Orr has proved himself the type of man for the prosecutor's office; in fact, from his records, the county will, be fortunate in having so capable a man acting in that capacity.

True merits, despite, the synics, is often recognized, and in the ease of Norman C. Orr, we feel that it is bound to be both recognized and applauded.

WOMEN FROM THE SOUTH have formed the Democratic Women's clubs for Hoover and Curtis. They do so because they don't like Al Smith's convivial tendencies. They say they do not care if Tammany Hall does banish them from the Democratic party. Yes, it's a long way from Bry-an's grape-juice to New York liquor.

PEOPLE'S

Be Yourself, Pontiac!

Pontiac, county seaf of Oakland County, is showing a decided opposition, to re-naming its main thoroughfare, Saginaw street, to Woodward avenue. The heft point of opposition centers on the belief that Pontiac, a large industrial center, desires to retain its largely known to be located in Detroit. Pontiac is largely known to be located in Detroit. Pontiac which Wayne County is large enough to run its own affairs, and resent the constant inroad which Wayne County is large enough to run its own affairs, and resent the constant inroad which Wayne County is large enough to run its own affairs, and resent the constant inroad which Wayne County is large enough to run its own affairs, and resent the constant inroad which Wayne County is making in a northerly direction.

We agree with Pontiac entirely. We suggest that it retain the name of its main street as Saginaw not only as opposed to Detroit and Wayne County annexation tyndencies, but for sentimental reason swell.

Let's keep Detroit where it belongs: namely, in Wayne County.
