CURL-LESS MARY PICKFORD says she ian't going to play little girl pirts in the movies anymore. That's right, Mary, be yourself. Anyway, Mary has, dug herself a fair bank account while she was growing up. And that's something for any girl whose right name is Smith.

EARLY THIS WEEK CABLES from France indicated that 6,000 barrels of wine were adrift in the river Seine, causing a danger to ship's propellers. A reward of $4.00 per barrel was offered by insurance companies to persons desirous of direct works and trees. That waters thirsting fields and grays and trees, training taxel on the Detroit River if that many kegs of wine were let loose—why a majority of Detroit's citizens would go in fee boating immediately.

Our Debt To Governor Green

According to indications at this writing, that will start the actual work of completing the raingland and paving of Woodward avenue in Birramgham about August 1. Work also its going ahead with the excayation for the new Grand Trunk tracks.

The new Birramgham with its 200 foot highway on the site of the heavy traffic, its a pleasant spectacle to contemplate.

Birramgham owes a debt of gratitude to Gov. Fred W. Green and his administration for these improvements. The Birramgham of the future will realize the gratiness of that debt probably more future to deal the work of the future will realize the gratiness of that debt or probably more future will realize the gratiness of that debt of gratitude to Gov. The New Plan Board

The Secentric is pleased to see a new planning commission appointed in Birmingham because this body may saily do a great service to the village.

The constant growth of Birmingham demands that provision be made for its future. If the village of several years ago had a planning commission, and if even part of the phenomenal growth had been anticipated, the Birmingham of, today would have fewer problems with which to contend.

If the village commission and this newly appointed planning commission will work together toward the betterment of the future Birmingham, the toward the betterment of the future Birmingham, and the toward the betterment of the future Birmingham, and the toward the betterment of the future Birmingham, and the toward the betterment of the future Birmingham, and the toward the betterment of the future Birmingham, and the toward the betterment of the future Birmingham, and the toward the betterment of the future Birmingham, and the toward the betterment of the future Birmingham, and the toward the betterment of the future Birmingham, and the toward the betterment of the future Birmingham, and the toward the betterment of the future Birmingham, and the toward the betterment of the future Birmingham, and the toward the betterment of the future Birmingham, and the toward the betterment of the future Birmingham, and the toward the betterment of the future Birmingham, and the toward the betterment of the future Birmingham, and the toward the betterment of the future Birmingham, and the toward the betterment of the future Birmingham, and the toward the betterment of the future Birmingham, and the toward the better of the second of the second of the North Pole Amundon and Filworth to toxard the Pole Amundon and the North Pole Amundon and Filworth to
