

CAR HITS AUTO, MAN INJURED

Machine Hurlled 100 Feet In Crash Near Birmingham

One man was injured and his automobile hurled nearly 100 feet and demolished when a Flinn bound interurban struck the car driven by Harry J. Smith, 1247 Ford avenue, Highland Park, at Maple road and Main street Saturday.

Smith was seriously injured, although the extent of his hurt is not yet known, according to Clavson police, who investigated. He was taken to the Highland Park General hospital by Deputy Sheriff Bernard Schrader.

L. H. Cardington, First National Bank Building, Detroit, a passenger on the car, and J. L. Luckey, of the Fifteen and a half mile road and Main streets, who was standing on the corner at the time of the accident, both stated to the investigating officers that they saw the accident.

The motorist of the car was Ferdinand W. Smith, of Rochester.

Struggle Market, 127 N. Woodward Ave., is prepared to supply ALL your needs. I also found out that they maintain their own delivery service, which absolutely guarantees your needs reaching you on time.

I saw the most marvelous "Granddaddy" of all the clocks in the world, at the Bloomfield Hills Antique Shop, 122 S. Woodward. It was a small wonder it held its own in the crowd of clocks, exquisitely carved hands in front of its face. Quite likely to cover dashes from hearing all the nice things said about it. It's a real Grandfather Clock. 14th in years and style. The case is of carved mahogany in two tones and the face has painted motifs, etc. I'm afraid with such a gorgeous piece of furniture, most of one's time would be spent telling the time of its face. It will tell you the Month, Day, Hour and Second! And I marveled at the low price!

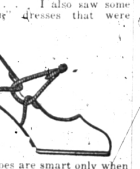

It's a far cry from the old days when a "pair of old trousers" and a "handkerchief" formed one's wardrobe. What sartorial masterpiece every Golf Course would be proud to have! Oh, well, the world is more and I know that if I were a man my way would be to stop at Chas. R. Peck's Sons, 125 S. Woodward Ave. I imagine they've the most marvelous assortment of knickers, hose and caps imaginable. Linen knickers or worsted? Caps with a specially ventilated crown? Or knicker and knicker? The Fleur des Lis blooms in such a charming spot! . . . and the hottest day of summer will find a most delightful leisure stealing in through its charming windows! This quaint lovely tea room down in Bloomfield Center is constantly gaining new friends. Both men and women find it a real treat to stop at this lovely place. The friendly atmosphere and delicious food, makes a real party out of even the simplest meal. And many are making it a weekly custom to order a delicious pie or cake to "take home."

Even stores go "vacationing" sometimes! I found out this week that Bertine Bleazley Garret, Birmingham, The Birmingham Village, is going to open up a summer shop at Petokey, with the same delightful things for "week shoppers" that are shown here in the Village! Stay at home friends are not going to be left out just because of the Birmingham shop will be open as always. . . . and best of all it is going to show delightful dresses in dainties and prints, and volles at a VERY SPECIAL Summer price! . . . wise shoppers will secure a number of these while they can! . . . I also saw some "Hungarian" dresses that were adorable!

White shoes are smart only when they ARE white! This is, equally true of tan, black or any other kind as every really well dressed woman knows. . . . but one doesn't always know just where to get the best cleaners, etc., to keep shoes in immaculate condition! I discovered this week that The Williams Shoe Store, 121 W. Maple St., is not only content to carry a complete line of the newest and best shoe styles for men, women and children, but they also carry a marvelous assortment of accessories. . . . Polishers and cleaners of all kinds. . . . and every imaginable appliance for saddle foot comfort such as corn plasters, arch supports, pads, etc.

"This week I discovered a little side window at The Mix Jewelry Store, 129 W. Maple St., which may or may not contain bargains EVERY week. . . . But I do know that THIS week I found it filled with most delightful pieces of silver or silver and glassware. Cheese dishes. . . . butter dishes. . . . marmalade jars. . . . bread and cake trays. . . . an infinite variety of lovely pieces for gifts or to make one's own table most attractive!" . . . and these pieces were priced at only $1.49! I'm surely going to watch that window every week!

You simply can't make a mistake when you ask for "Cold Cream" at the Wilson Drug Co., 101 S. Woodward Ave. for if you want little Wills and he asks for cold cream and gets chocolate and puts it there. . . . IES satisfied or if you go yourself and REALLY get Cold Cream YOU'LL be satisfied! For they've the most complete line of Harriet Hubbard Ayer's creams I've ever seen. . . . and every woman knows the marvelous quality of H. H. A. creams! There is one for every type of skin and for every purpose. . . . Massage cream, bleach cream, powder base, etc., etc., and they are ALL so delightful!

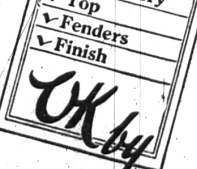

If you think women are the only cautious shoppers. . . . or the only ones who appreciate real GAINS, still stroll into the Birmingham Dept. Store, 116 S. Woodward Ave. . . . Men! Men! I were a man my way would be to stop at Chas. R. Peck's Sons, 125 S. Woodward Ave. I imagine they've the most marvelous assortment of knickers, hose and caps imaginable. Linen knickers or worsted? Caps with a specially ventilated crown? Or knicker and knicker? "Beauty is only skin deep" says the Psalmist! . . . Love is only a skin game! echoes the Cynic! Marguerite wisely says that the main idea is to keep that skin thickness of beauty as lovely as possible! And there's magic worked at her shop, 145 S. Woodward Ave. . . . Deft fingers and marvelous creams transform skin to rose leaves! . . . And try one of Marguerite's wonderful facials and you can smile away with her "Beauty MAY be only skin deep."

but NONE of us are cannibals! By the way work is progressing rapidly on the exquisite new Orchard, green and silver-labrador . . . and it IS going to be lovely!

Seems as if winemery will never cease as regards the marvelous service offered by Hallock's Grocery Store, 116 W. Maple St. I no longer get over one pleasant surprise than I find them ready with another. . . . they do most everything with your groceries except eat them for you! . . . I've told you of their hourly delivery service, their Special Delivery Service, their Shopping Service (they will make purchases for you at other stores and deliver with your groceries) and this week I find another "marvelous feature!" Just drop them a card, if you're at the lake and you will have your groceries mailed to you immediately. Can you equal that, for service anywhere?

Here is an item which I am sure will be of interest to every housewife in Birmingham. There is no need for a long, tiresome trip into Detroit to secure fancy pastas or fancy cuts of meat!

The intricacies of big business are at times apt to be quite puzzling to the fair sex. . . . and it is sometimes quite a surprise for the poor dears to learn that "Stock holders" are not necessarily farmers! . . . And as far as I myself am concerned, many's the time I hear the fatal words "Over-drawn" when my check book is simply full of checks! But, funny banking troubles can now be a thing of the past. . . . I discovered this week that the First State Bank, Woodward Ave. and Maple, are only too glad to solve feminine banking problems, large or small. It is a joy to know that in matters of Checking accounts, savings accounts, income tax, wills, etc., one may secure really expert advice and opinion. . . . and I'm sure you will be glad to know it too.

Miss Twentieth Century who would crave to be the "Belle of the Ball" must learn to swing a mean mallet! . . . but 18 holes on a Golf Course and much more are bound to be shined. La Belle, 125 W. Maple St., has solved this problem. They are showing a smart white-enamelled compact, which represents most cleverly a golf ball. . . . the powder inside is also barred after the manner of a golf ball! I can't think of a more charming prize for the foursome or for Country Club Bridge Parties! . . . Nor is mere man made up in the form of mammoth "dies" which may roll a low score away! . . . "Sky" Straper ordered this week that The Williams Shoe Store, 121 W. Maple St., is not only content to carry a com-
