VILLAGE NINE LOSES 5 TO 1

Tatham Stars As Inlay City Conquerors

The Birmingham Merchants lost to Hoisington-Buicks at Inlay City last Sunday by a 5-1 score. The remarkable hurling of J. W. Tatham, Birmingham's southpaw pitcher and left fielder, was an outstanding factor in the game played there.

Gertley started the game, and Inlay City batters got out four runs in the first inning. He was taken out of the box and Tatham, a former University of Notre Dame star took his place.

Tatham exhibited some of the best pitching that has been seen in Inlay City in years. His throws completely baffled the home team, and he allowed only one man to cross the plate.

11 VILLAGERS U. OF M. GRADS

Plans for the future are predominant in the minds of the University of Michigan graduates, following their commencement June 18. Eleven persons from Birmingham are among the graduating class, seven graduating from the law, two from the college of engineering and the other two from law and dentistry respectively.

Miss Katherine Ferguson, who is graduating with an A. B., intends to go into secretarial work after her graduation.

Lester Looney and Howard Lloyd, both holders of degrees in electrical engineering, the former being with the Radio Corporation of America, in New York City.

Mortimer Neff is with the W. D. Roy Publishing company of Detroit in an advertising capacity.

Walter Bromley is to go into business with his father, Frank Bromley.

Plans of other graduates have not been announced.
