CLUB MEMBERS ENJOY MOVIES

Members of the Bloomfield Open Hunt club were entertained last Thursday evening, following the regular Lane Ride dinner, by a film of the 1928 Grand National race held at Liverpool, England.

In this race an American entry, "Billy Barton" ran second, first place only after falling in the last jump. Other films of less important races and shows completed the evening's program which was arranged by C. C. Winningham.

Among the club members present were: Mr. and Mrs. George T. Hendrie, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Moss, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Simpson, Dr. and Mrs. George P. Raynale, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Donovan, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Taliaferro, and Miss Josephine Taliaferro, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Braun, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Bigbie, and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Winningham and Miss Jane Winningham.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Chester Varney, of Rivenoak avenue entertained 40 guests at a dinner at the Fox and Hounds Inn last Saturday evening.

Debs Claiming June Their Month

Virginia Braun, Delphine Vhay To Make Bow This Week

Debutantes are claiming June as their month in Bloomfield Hills this season. Heavy rains have made the foliage more verdant and the hills were perhaps never lovlier than they now are. Everywhere there is a profusion of greenery and rolling lawns stretching back to charming homes.

Just such a scene, brightened by a host of gay spring flowers will feature the garden party to Miss Virginia Braun this Saturday at "Linda Vista," the estate of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Braun.

Upon this occasion Miss Marion Johnson, of Syracuse, N. Y., is to be Miss Braun's guest.

On Thursday following Miss Braun's debut, Miss Delphine Vhay will be presented to society at a luncheon given at the Fox and Hounds Inn by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Vhay.

Although not a strictly debutante function, the dinner dance given by Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Traub at the Bloomfield Hills Country club last evening, complimenting their daughter, Miss Barbara Traub, who only Saturday returned from Smith College, was of interest to members of the Hills younger set and proved to be a delightful affair.

Fortune-Telling St. Fair Stunt

Tea leaf reading, now so much in vogue, will be one of the features of the St. James street fair which is scheduled for Saturday afternoon June 23. All those taking afternon tea at the Community House may have their fates revealed by a gifted leaf reader whose services Mrs. A. C. Utter has procured.

Italian embroidered linens, laces and doilies from an importer in New York City will be on sale at a booth in charge of Mrs. William G. Wall and Mrs. Edward W. Hett.

The By-lo booth promises to be most interesting with its novelties for small girls. A group of young women are painting the doll cradles and making hand bedding for Miss Frances Skinner, who is in charge of the booth.

Mrs. William B. Brown is to be in charge of the noon luncheon to be served at twelve o'clock in the church parlors, while Mrs. H. W. Potter will take care of the dining room at this time and Mrs. George P. Raynale will have it at the dinner hour. Tickets for the dinner, which will be served at both six and seven, may be procured from Leigh Lynch.

WOMAN'S CLUB GIVES BENEFIT

"Ramona," with Dolores Del Rio, has been chartered by the Business and Professional Woman's club to appear at the Kunsky Birmingham theater Wednesday, as the feature of the performance they are giving for the benefit of the Community House. Plans are not yet complete, although some specialties will be included in the program, according to the committee in charge of the event.

CHURCH GROUP ENJOYS ROAST

Forty members of the Christian Friendship class of the First Baptist Church assembled at the home of Mrs. David Anderson, on Harvey road for their usual monthly business and social meeting.

Motion pictures were features of the evening, after which the party enjoyed a bacon fry out of doors.

Mrs. Ruth Lockrow had charge of the affair and was assisted by Mrs. Lila Peck and Mrs. Walter Bensorter.

Mrs. E. T. Foote, of Yorkshire road, is giving a bridge luncheon for 20 guests at the Lone Pine Inn Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Foote and their family are moving soon to Hinsdale, Ill.

ELECTED

MRS. FRED D. FARRAR

Mrs. Farrar is named today to succeed Mrs. Clinton E. Sears on the board of the Student Loan Fund. The appointment takes effect immediately. Mrs. Sears recently resigned.

ANCIENT GREECE REVIVED IN HILLS

Gods and goddesses laughed in a sportive mood back in the days of ancient Greece. The tantalizing Pandora lifted the fatal lid and the slim Muses' danced reflected in a limpid pool. Socrates and Xantippe passed by conversing in a familiar manner.

Greece came back in true John Erskine style to the Greek theater at Cranbrook last Saturday when the College club presented its two plays, "Socrates, and Xantippe," by Maurice Baring and "The Gift" by Margaret Douglas Rodgers, under the direction of Carol Wakefield of the Royal Academy of Dramatic Art, London, Eng.

The plays, which were presented by a Detroit cast, were followed by harp selections. At 6 p. m. supper was served in the pavilion of the Lone Pine Inn for the members of the club and their guests.

Rev. and Mrs. S. S. Marquis, of Lone Pine and Cranbrook roads are leaving next Tuesday for a week at their summer cottage at Lake Rousseau near Muskoka, Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Young C. Smith, and family of Pierce street, are leaving Saturday for their summer cottage at Clear Lake.

DETROIT LEAGUE SALE IN THE HILLS FRIDAY

Plans are being completed today for a sale of articles by the Detroit League for the Handicapped Friday from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m. conducted by the Bloomfield Hills division of the Junior League of Detroit at the home of Mrs. Elliott S. Nichols.

Household linens and pieces of French handiwork will be among the articles at the tables as well as gay pillows and hooked rugs to brighten porches.

Mrs. Robert Hargreaves of Cranbrook road, is chairman of the sale.

Social Briefs

Mrs. W. A. P. John, of Tooting lane, entertained her neighborhood bridge club Tuesday at her home.

Mrs. T. R. Donovan, of "Valhalla," entertained at a small luncheon last Saturday at the Forest Lake Country club honoring Mrs. Donovan's sister, Miss Theresa Donovan, of Chicago.

Mrs. George R. Anderson, of Ridgedale avenue, is entertaining this Friday at a bridge luncheon at the Walnut Glen Pantry.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlton C. Patterson, of Woodland avenue, had as their dinner guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Preble.

Mrs. Nelson Joyner, Jr., is the guest this week of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Huff, of Pine Lake.

Dr. and Mrs. Warren Gibson, of north Woodward avenue, attended a house party at Bruin Lake last week-end.

Harry L. Wallace, of Lone Pine road, was host at a small luncheon at the Lone Pine Inn last Tuesday.

BIBLE SCHOOL STARTS JULY 2

Plans Worked Out For Large Enrollment In Summer Session

Plans are being completed today for the start of the Vacation Bible School of Birmingham which is expected this year to be larger than at any other time since its start. Classes are to begin July 2 and end July 27, according to Robert D. Lynd, secretary.

Two schools will be used for meeting places, the Adams and the Hill. Classes will meet daily except Saturday between 9 and 11:30 a. m.

Miss Pauline Robion will be principal for the session at the Adams School. She is the sister of Mrs. David Leon Woodward of Birmingham. Mrs. Carl Binkle, teacher at the Adams School, will be principal for the summer classes at the Hill School.

An enrollment of 400 pupils is expected, it is announced, and plans are being made to accommodate that number. This will be a decided increase over last year's enrollment of 230. Pupils are to be between the ages of four and fourteen years and the school is opened to all creeds.

Special games are being planned for the recreational work and a program is being completed to work in conjunction with the summer playground activities in the village.

CHINESE PASTOR TO SPEAK HERE

Former Classmate Of The Rev. Woodward To Give Baptist Sunday Sermon

The Rev. Donald Fay, a native Chinese pastor and one of the speakers at the Northern Baptist convention at Detroit, will deliver the sermon at the morning service of worship at the Birmingham Baptist Church, Sunday at the High School Auditorium, according to announcement today. The Rev. D. L. Woodward, pastor of the First Baptist Church here, was a class-mate with the Rev. Fay at Rochester Theological Seminary, Rochester, N. Y., where they graduated in 1921.

Mr. Fay graduated at Shanghai Baptist College previous to his coming to America for his higher education. He has been preaching and teaching in West China as a Christian Missionary for seven years.

GIRL SCOUTS ARE AWARDED MERIT BADGES

First Court Of Honor For Birmingham Troops Held

PLAN FUTURE MEETS

Nearly 100 merit badges and numerous tenderfoot and second class badges were awarded to Birmingham Girl Scouts at the court of awards held at the Community House last Friday evening.

The court was the first conducted by the Birmingham council.

Mrs. C. D. Cole, captain of troop 4, opened the court with the formalities of the regular troop meeting. Awards were presented to the Scouts by Mrs. Lee A. White, president of the council.

Tenderfoot badges were presented to the following Scouts: Hester Gates, Betty Brady, Marvel Carson, Blanche Clark.

Merit Badges Given

Merit badges were awarded to the following girls, who having completed the requirements for the badge, and who are second class Scouts, were eligible:

Gardener: Betty Peabody.

Homemaker: Virginia Packard.

Swimmer: Nancy Johnson, Josephine Westcott, Sarah Baker, Frances Murray, Janet Fowler, Carolyn Salisbury, Marian Fowler.

Laundress: Josephine Westcott, Vesta Martin, Donna Russell, Sarah Baker.

Blanche Clark has passed the requirements for this badge, but is not eligible to receive it yet, as she is not a second class Scout.

Athlete: Carolyn Salisbury, Marian Fowler, Donna Russell.

Of the nearly 120 girls receiving awards, Marian Fowler received the highest number. She received 13 badges. Her sister, Jane, and Carolyn Salisbury each received 10 badges, tying for second place, and Mary and Roxane Lambie each received 5.

Troop 4 Wins

Announcement was made at the court of awards of the results of the six-weeks' contest held among the girls here. Under the rules of the contest, members of the district council were to visit the troops at unknown times and check on the troop's attendance and activities. Troop 4 won the contest, and will be presented with the troop flag that was decided on as first prize, and troop 5 will receive the pennant, for second prize. The council decided, however, that since the contest was designed in Pontiac for older girls, and since all the troops in the Birmingham event were so close, a prize of some kind will be given to each.

It was also announced at the court that all but two members of troop 1, these two kept out because they were too young to enter, have completed the American Red Cross courses given them by Emma Christenson, school nurse. The test papers are at present in Washington being graded, but Miss Christenson says she is confident that they will all pass with high honors. These girls will be eligible for the Girl Scout first aid badge, as well as the Red Cross emblem.

In the future, courts of awards will be held twice a year or oftener if necessary, it has been decided. The demand on the court has been such that, while it was originally planned to be an annual affair, it will be increased.

Youth's Leaning Post . . . Father

Little kiddies love their father and don't hesitate to tell their playmates and adult admirers about it . . . they love him in a distinct, yet somewhat indefinable way. He is their leaning post in disputes with other children. He is the "strongest and bravest man in the world" as they see him. And as these youngsters grow up he becomes their "pal." Mothers are Mothers, but Fathers are Fathers. The two most essential influences in a human's life. Grateful sons and daughters have dedicated him a day of gratitude.
