An appeal from a conviction for driving while intoxicated in which the respondent is George Kimball, is on the June calendar and will be taken up later in the term.

WE HEARD IT SAID BY—

George Henry Mitchell, insurance: "Forty-eight years ago, Tuesday last, Dr. Daniel M. Johnson came to this village and set up a dentist's office. He was just a kid from Canada, swinging a light cane and was somebody and something from the madian shores. Well, he went right at work, and was successful from the start. He has been president of our village, master of his lodge, F. & M. and is a highly respected and honored citizen of our village. Successful! I'll say he is. He was here earlier than over $200,000, and still working. Me? Why I came to this village 26 years ago, and the Doctor, without a stitch of clothing on my back. Now look at me! I owe $40,000. That's going some!"

The date includes two Sundays, and the week between, July 1 to 8, and a program freighted with strength and inspiration is announced. This conference will bring out the messages of men who have built reputations as Bible teachers and speakers.

Page, and Dr. Frank Smith, will have expositions and addresses. Dr. J. C. Austin, Harvey Frammer, veteran missionary of W. E. Harris, and W. E. Harris, John M. Rhodes, Miss Alda A. Williams, Isaac G. Jenkins, and Miss Starr led in five precincts of the city, while Hartwick was high in three and tied with Lawson in a fourth; Montgomery led in two precincts and Clawson took the rest.

Miss Starr will hold office for four years, Hartwick and Clawson for three years, Montgomery and Austin for two; and Mrs. McNeill and Wilson for one. This will provide a rotating system.

Within 30 days after receiving notification of the election results the township clerk under the school code must call a meeting of the township board to divide the assets of the respective school districts affected by the merger, which makes the boundaries of the city school district co-extensive with the city limits.

Dr. J. S. Morrison and H. Lloyd Clawson were re-elected members of the board of education of school district No. 6 at its annual meeting in the Royal Oak high school Monday night.

A. Donders explained, may be the last to be held by this district, after an existence of nearly 100 years. But the board decided to hold the meeting and election so as to make certain of providing a body to govern school matters in the district, if the supreme court decides that the city school election held yesterday is invalid. District No. 6 contains all but the more northerly parts of the city, as well as part of Huntington Woods village and a few other small areas outside the city limits.

INSURANCE TOPIC OF ROTARY TALK

Salesman Tells How Widows Are Victims of "Get-rich-quick" Schemes

Daniel H. Swartz, of Parly street, one of Birmingham's newest Rotarians, gave an interesting and educating talk on matters pertaining to life insurance before the Rotary club here Monday noon.

Mr. Swartz one of the best life insurance agents in the United States during 1927 in point of total business, argued for the payment of insurance premiums to widows on a monthly payment plan, rather than a lump sum.

He related instances showing how many widows have been "kyped" of their insurance money by "high pressure stock salesmen," and pointed out the fact that the average woman, unused to handling large sums of money, would be provided for in a better manner through the receipt of monthly sums corresponding to her deceased husband's ordinary allowance.

About 25 Birmingham Rotarians attended the presentation of a charter to the new Rotary club of River Rouge last night. The affair was held at the Grosse Isle Country club, at Grosse Isle.

Emile Lemdes, aged 42, of Seattle, Wash, today served a 63-day prison term for sticking needles into girls "just to see them jump."

The fire department was handicapped by the fact that there was no water supply available.

The loss to the house was not estimated. Firemen said, however, that it was slight. The building had not been occupied for some years and it was to be razed for the new right of way.

ITS FIRST NAME OR— $1 FOR EXCHANGITES

John A. Wendorph, newest member of the Birmingham Exchange club, was fined $1 Tuesday noon by "Sheriff" John Lawson when it was found that he had failed to call them Exchangeites by their first names. The penalty was heavier than usually imposed upon new members, part of their initiation being the necessity of learning each member's first name.

Robert R. Allen, president of the club, spoke briefly of the National Exchange convention to be held in Toledo, O., July 22 to 27. A number of Birmingham Exchangeites are planning to attend the affair, Thursday, July 26, being designated as "Michigan Day."

Sandy Wright, at the meeting Tuesday noon, expressed his appreciation of an enlarged photograph of a beautiful woman whom he followed a recent fishing trip near Gaylord, Mich. "I shall always cherish this picture," Sandy told members of the club.

John Lawson, "sheriff," was presented with a large brass chain by Larry Martindale, the chain to be used by Mr. Lawson in retaining his place in small meetings of the club. The chain will be used in place of a pair of handcuffs, it is believed.
