Too bad poor Ponce de Leon wasn't his wife! . . . for Oh SHE could have found youth and beauty TOO at Marguerite's, 145 S. Woodward Ave! She does such marvelous things! . . . not content with giving a perfect permanent, Marguerite trains it with deft finger waving until each shining head is indeed "a thing of beauty" and surely a "joy forever!" . . . and before many weeks Marguerite will greet you with a marvelous new salon! . . . its to be an exquisite affair, quite modernistic in orchid and green and silver! What matter if ones does have to wait a wee minute or two when it can be done in such a charming atmosphere!

S'funny how all winter long mere man goes his way choosing neutral grays and sober blacks for raiment! . . . revels in their conservatism! . . . then comes the Spring! . . . and visions of sartorial splendor invade each golf course! . . . Solomon in all his glory would have to swing a mean mantle to even rate par with him! Oh yes, swagger golf attire is the battle cry of the millions . . . and I'm sure the fussiest Beau Brummel in the foursome will find a marvelous showing of Golf Hose and Sweaters at Chas. R. Peck Sons, 102 S. Woodward Ave. . . . A wide choice of colors, weaves and patterns . . . singly or beautifully matched sets!

There's music in the very word "Silhouette!" . . . and, Oh such delight to own truly lovely ones! There's a most charming collection at The Bloomfield Hills Antique Shop, 172 S. Woodward Ave! . . . Quaint and stately figures of long ago! . . . Historical figures and those of Romance, too! . . . Equally charming are the groups . . . "In Grandma's Day" . . . "The Trysting Place" . . . Don't the very names intrigue you . . . and they are exquisitely framed in maple, black, or gold and black. I also found some lovely hand colored, miniature hunting prints! . . . and the delicate charm of a pencil drawing "The Guillion-Lethiere Family" quite beggars description! . . . but oh, they are all such perfect wedding gifts!

As near to you as your telephone! and Oh, isn't it a joy to know that when it rains . . . or when the sun beats down . . . or when its just a question of taking life easy . . . you can phone Hallocks Grocery at 116 W. Maple Street, and have your order selected with the same careful attention to quality and economy you would give to it yourself! . . . And speaking of service! . . . this remarkable store has 8 regular deliveries a day . . . and "Special Delivery" at any hour! . . . also C. O. D. delivery service! . . . Incidentally I found a most complete assortment of hot-meats (fresh every week!) sandwich spreads, salad dressings of every kind, marvelous cookies! and all staple and fancy groceries!

You can't blame a Bathing girl for being fussy about every detail . . . when one considers just how charming the "tout ensemble" can be! . . . and whereas for practical purposes an inner tube which has graced the family Ford might do for the Mermaid who doesn't swim so well! I'm sure that from an aesthetic standpoint the Rubber Floats shown at The Wilson Drug Co., 104 S. Woodward Ave. will add to the picture considerable! . . . They adapt the inner tube idea to feminine size and in smart colors! . . . Clever too, are the full length capes! . . . they are tailored and trimmed just like any cloth garment but being entirely of rubber, most practical for beach wear!

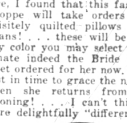
Fly time is high time . . . (sounds like a musical comedy song doesn't it?) and since there's little music to the annoying buzz of ubiquitous flies . . . we'll start all over and simply say that real HOT summer days are apt to be here any day now . . . and there is no time like the present to get screens ready for the perennial summer battle! . . . The Devoe Paint & Art Shop, 147 S. Woodward Ave., can furnish every kind of paint and enamel for both screens and frames and the proper brushes, too!

What a delightful surprise I had this week! . . . I absent mindedly opened the door to The Irene Hat Shop, 143 S. Woodward Ave. (forgetting for the minute that she had moved one door North) . . . and so I received full benefit to the charming new interior! . . . It's well worth a visit to inspect this artistically arranged new Shop . . . even if you don't need a new hat . . . But I'll wager that when you see the marvelous assortment of new models . . . you'll decide that you simply HAVE to have one! Oh, there are such adorable shapes! . . . felts . . . straws and ribbon hats in a delectable assortment of lovely colors!

If you don't think that Father's Day is just about one of the most popular holidays in all the year, stroll past the window of The Birmingham Department Store at 116 S. Woodward! . . . I readily found a dozen answers to the problem "What shall I get for Dad?" . . . an unlimited choice of most acceptable gifts! . . . Ties (I'm sure they're the kind he would pick out!) Shirts . . . beautifully tailored in a wide choice of colors and patterns . . . Bathing Suits . . . Sports Caps . . . Pajamas and certainly not last and far from least HANDKERCHIEFS! There I've told you a wonderful place to select that gift and I'm sure YOU'LL have no trouble at all in selecting it!

There's a bit of China in every PANTRY . . . cause that's what a pantry's for! . . . but nevertheless I know 'twill be a delightful surprise for the many patrons of The Walnut Glen Pantry, Woodward Avenue at Oak, to learn that a special Chop Suey Dinner will be served each Saturday night . . . cooked in that delicious, inimitable style for which the PANTRY is already famous! . . . and a Chop Suey Party would, I'm sure be a charmingly different way to entertain! . . . You'll be equally enchanted with the PANTRY as a place for teas, luncheons or "family dinners" any or every day in the week!

Grown-up folks perhaps a bit more mindful than children of their "party manners" may not shout "Here comes the Ice Cream" . . . but you can rest assured there isn't a bit less enthusiasm . . . especially if the Ice Cream comes from Hammelef's at 125 N. Woodward Ave! . . . It has the same wholesome goodness that has made their candies famous for over 25 years! . . . Just try it for YOUR next party . . . or their delicious ices for dinners! . . . and for the "special extra occasions you may have Ice Cream moulded into many artistic and appropriate shapes!



The Wright Drapery Shoppe, 217 N. Woodward Ave., is indeed a delightful place to go! . . . Not only will you find the most marvelous drapery work-room imaginable . . . but you can secure unlimited ideas on charming ways to dress windows! . . . and added to their most complete drapery service, I found that this fascinating Shoppe will take orders for exquisitely quilted pillows and afghans! . . . these will be done in any color you may select and fortunate indeed the Bride who has a set ordered for her now. . . ready just in time to grace the new home when she returns from honeymooning! . . . I can't think of a more delightfully "different gift!"

"Hope springs eternal for a good night's rest! . . . and there is a sure aid to those who would consistently woo Morpheus! . . . Have you seen the De Luxe Bed Spring featured at The Truax Furniture Company, 104 N. Woodward Ave.?

If not you can't know what a REAL night's sleep means! This marvelous mattress is scientifically constructed to fit the natural sleeping posture of the body! . . . Far be it from me to spread an epidemic of inertia . . . but you've years of rest to catch up if you HAVEN'T been using a De Luxe mattress and you can ONLY get caught up with a De Luxe!

There is no more delightful place to stop for Graduate's Gifts than at La Belles, 125 W. Maple St., the place fairly teems with lovely and appropriate suggestions! . . . Girls in their teens (and older ones, too) adore costume jewelry and you'll find here quite the cleverest assortment imaginable . . . pinks, and blues and greens! . . . such delightful colors and color combinations! and by the way, Lapis and Pearls is the newest and smartest combination of them all! . . . Then there are Diaries . . . Morocco Pocketbooks, marvelous hand tooled affairs entirely of leather so they'll never wear out! . . . Monogrammed stationery . . . Pen and Pencil Sets . . . Billfolds . . . and OF COURSE Books!

There's conspiracy afoot! . . . Beauty and comfort have joined hands and no longer is a golf or walking shoe an ugly thing . . . or at best quite plain! . . . There's a decided Parisian smartness to the tailoring of the sports shoes milady finds now, and they play no small part in securing a charming effect for her Sports Apparel! . . . I found a wonderful selection of Golf, Tennis and walking shoes at Williams Shoe Store, 121 W. Maple St., . . . I almost wished to be a centipede, but fear 'twould handicap one's golf considerable.

Wee ladies of fashion find a most delightful assortment of frocks, styled especially for them, at Bertine Bleazby Garrett's—Birmingham Theatre Bldg! . . . and, in this fairy shop even dream dresses come true for you can leave your order and find a special dress made just for YOU! . . . Mothers, too, can order in this same satisfying fashion! . . . And because accessories play such an important part in true smartness I couldn't help but notice the clever Tony Sarg Print Pocket Books for tiny folks . . . and the equally enchanting Rodier Print Bags for grown-ups!

TIRE PRICES CUT REPORTED

Birmingham tire stores today were making hurried preparations for an expected buying rush on the part of motorists following announcements by the General Tire and Rubber company and another leading rubber factory of a substantial cut in the retail price of tires.

General tire stores here and over the country were selling all types and sizes of tires today at the new low prices. Large consignments of tires from the General company's various warehouses were being rushed by truck to dealers here and elsewhere.

Miller's Tire & Battery Service, 312 south Woodward avenue is the General tire distributor here.

The price cut, came without warning. It is the third slash in seven months and the fourth in sixteen months and establishes an all time record for low consumer cost of standard make automobile tires. Previous record low prices on the commodity in 1908 and 1914 stood considerable above today's retail quotations.

Temporarily at least, motorists will purchase first quality tires at lower prices than at any time in the history of the rubber industry, Mr. Miller said.

CHURCH OPPOSES PAVING OF STREET

A letter from the board of the First Presbyterian Church to the village commission today is in the files following its reading at the meeting Monday night. The church protested against the proposed paving of the street and suggested instead that it be graveled.
