NEIGHBORS (By a Staff Correspondent) The United Presbyterian Missionary Society of Southfield met at the home of John Purdy last Thursday. Charles Van Avery, of Lahser road, Southfield, is recuperating slowly from a severe case of pneumonia. At one time physicians in attendance expressed doubt as to his recovery, but it is now sure that he will recover. Children's Day was observed last Sunday in the Southfield United Presbyterian Church. Rev. Hughes, friend of the court for the City of Detroit, officiated in the absence of Rev. Armstrong, whose resignation was accepted some time ago, and for whom a successor has not yet been appointed. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde B. Gass, of Southfield, will leave soon for a week's stay in Chicago. GARDEN CLUB MEETS The Trowel Garden club of Orchard Lake will meet at the residence of Mrs. A. J. Stahelin, Long Lake road, Saturday to discuss the growing of peonies. Afterward the group will adjourn to the Wayside Gardens at Orchard Lake.
