LOST
Between the Opera and the Trocadero, one small blue purse, containing keys, steamship ticket, and $400 in U. S. currency. Reward—if returned to Hotel Continental—Rue de Rivoli.

BEHIND that little advertisement is a story of worry, inconvenience, wrecked plans. Avoid the loss of money on your trip by taking National City Bank of New York Travelers Checks. Readily cashable by you into the currency of the country, but by no one else. Your countersignature on each check is required for negotiability. A finder or a thief cannot use them.
