ELKS PLANNING ANOTHER SHOW

Schools of Birmingham Moved Up To Semi-Final In Light-weight Card

The Royal Oak Elks' third boxing show will be presented at their arena in Royal Oak next Friday night, June 25, and will have as the principal headliner the famous Al Wolgast, and Frankie Grover who has received the nickname of the Kalamazoo Wild Cat. Both these boys will weigh in at 145 lbs. and will go 10 rounds to a decision as the main event. This should be one of the fastest scraps that has yet been put on here as both the contenders have excellent reputations and have made ring history in their few short years in the game.
