Syndicates Purchase 50 Feet Of Frontage In Downtown

Purchase of 500 feet of east Maple avenue frontage is announced today by Robert R. Allen, realtor, for a syndicate of Birmingham men. Later the syndicate will acquire the property will be sold and new stores constructed.

The land is occupied by the Deer Barber shop and a laundry. The street numbers are 115 and 117 east Maple avenue. While the purchase price has not been made public, it has been intimated it is approximately $1000 per front foot. Edgar A. Parks is the owner.

One of the syndicates is made up of the following men: James W. Taylor, Edward W. Hett, Ralph C. Mouthrop, Harley D. Warner and Mr. Allen. This syndicate purchased 30 feet.

The other syndicate which purchased 20 feet is made up of Luther D. Allen, Seymour D. Adams, Ralph C. Mouthrop, J. H. McBride, James W. Taylor, Edward W. Hett, Robert W. Chissus, A. L. Moses, Harley D. Warner, Edgar S. Pierce and Mr. Allen.

The Oakland County Savings association is expected to construct a modern banking building on the site, Mr. Allen said.

Options on another piece of land on east Maple obtained by Mr. Allen two weeks ago were dropped in favor of the present lot boy, he said.

WE HEARD IT SAID BY—

Lloyd McQuater, fireman: The Michigan state firemen have been working on the pension bill for 10 years. The matter has been taken to the attorney general who assures us that, if the petition for amendment goes through, a pension law will soon follow. This pension will be paid from a corporation tax.

HAPPY the bride whom the sun shines on and bride whom the thought dawns on, that all engraving work can be executed done at La Belles! . . . what joy to drop in leisurely and make a selection with the assistance of an engraving expert! . . . for with rushing about to parties and teas, the poor dears have little inclination for a time some journey miles away to order Announcements, Invitations, Dinner Cards, etc. And speaking of brides (brides who isn't this month?) there's no lovelier gift than pewter and the same shop at 125 W. Maple St. is showing many delightful pieces including tea and coffee sets.

With the decided urge for early Americans . . . and every canny life flapper . . . and knowing only the most reliable . . . gift seekers will find a veritable treasure trove at the Blooming Hills Antique Shop, 172 S. Woodward. There's quite the finest collection of early American glass in the country . . . marvelous rosewood chairs with needle point seats! . . . gift racks and lovely that forestal tree-wood decoration! . . . it's well worth a day's journey to revel among these exquisite pieces of by-gone days! . . . how I did covet a perfectly gorgeous J. Ridgway Delaware platter! . . . an unbelievable bargain at $50- for if I know MY Americana it's a real museum piece and easily worth four times that price! What a perfect gem of a wedding gift it would be!

VACATION millinery offers a variety of problems . . . the smartly groomed woman demands impeccable hats for what's a vacation without comfort? . . . so it must also be a hat that packs neatly and will stand up. W. Knock-out wear. The Irbee Hat Shop at 143 S. Woodward offers many interesting answers to this problem . . . lovely felt in pastel shades . . . ribbon hats and cloth haps . . . And because even happy-go-lucky vacationists have to don party clothes some times, there is a delectable array of fatter, larger hats if hairbands and other smart trappings. The address above, by the way is new, as Irene has secured larger quarters just one door North of the old address.

There's nothing more acceptable for the boy of girl Graduate than a Fountain Pen and Pencil Set—and there's nothing smarter than the latest Sheaffer creation in black and white. The Wilson Drug Co. at 104 S. Woodward is showing a complete line of this newest style in two sizes. You could search many hours and not find a more appropriate or welcome gift. And because feminine noses have a way of always getting shiny, this large variety of charming compact shown in this same store furnishes an added gift thought.

"Smarty, Smarty had a party—and everybody came to this party!—for the invitations read "at the PANTRY" and that meant rest and diversion in a most delightful atmosphere . . . and real food deliciously cooked! Oh, it's a charming place The Walnut Glen Party Woodward at Oak, and a favorite and luncheons will find it a delightful setting and moreover it's a most successful way of solving the Thursday night dinner problem. The smart home-maker will make a practice of at least one "Pantry" night a week to the joy of an enthusiastic family.

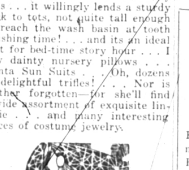

Those who go to sea and those who merely go to SEASIDE in silk eye-thrust over this season's bathing apparel! Quite the smartest thing I noticed in the Birmingham Department Store, 116 S. Woodward was a var-colored striped bathing jacket and suit to match . . . a chic flaming red bathing helmet with a big silhouette at the front! . . . it dared the most timid to breast the waves! (And by the way the Chanel influence is distinctly noticeable in bathing caps! strictly utilitarian are they and today!) There's smart caps! and the frilly affairs of yesterday! There's smart caps! however to the bathing shoes that sport heels! They're more comfortable to walk in and infinitely

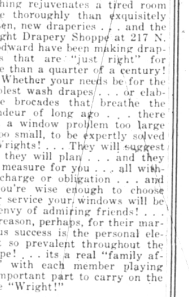

What price insomnia? . . . when spent luxuriously contemplating the restful qualities of the world famous "Beautyrest" mattress? . . . None! Only the point is that with a Beautyrest there wouldn't be any insomnia! . . . The Triax Furniture Company at 104 S. Woodward Ave. is showing a complete line of Beautyrest mattresses . . . and they are certainly the soft answer which turns away wrathful Americans when nerves become frayed with sleepless tossing on hot summer nights! . . . You'll find a wide variety of smartly patterned coverings in a choice of colors . . . and are they comfortable looking! . . . well all I have to say is if you can look at them more than a minute and not yawn your eyes stronger minded than I was!

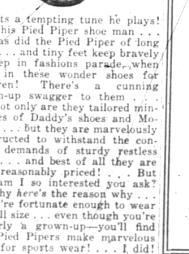

We shoppers of four and six and thereabouts . . . will find a clever array of possessions, designed for them, at Bertine Beahy Garrett's-Birmingham Theatre Bldg. . . They feel a real wash affair that lisp smartness with a truly Parisian accent! And most adorable of delightful trappings . . . "Step-Up" for instance, is a cute little enamel best of many uses . . . it willingly lends a sturdy seat for bed-time, the story hour . . . saw dainty nursery pillows . . . Vania Sun Suits . . . Oh, dozens of delightful trappings . . . as if Mother, forgotten-for she'll find a wide assortment of exquisite lingerie . . . and many interesting pieces of costume jewelry.

Nothing rejuvenates a tired room more thoroughly than quietly chosen, new draperies . . . and the Wright Drapery Shop at 217 N. Woodward have been making draperies that are "just right" for more than a quarter of a century! . . . Whether your needs be for the simplest wash drapes . . . or elaborate brocades that breathe the grandeur of long ago . . . there isn't a window problem . . . large or too small, to be expertly solved at Wright's! . . . They will suggest they will plan . . . and they will measure for you . . . all without charge or obligation . . . and if you're wise enough to choose their service your windows will be the envy of admiring friends! . . . one reason, perhaps, for their marvelous success is the personal element so prevalent throughout the shop . . . and tiny feet keep bravely in step in fashions parade, when shod in these wonder shoes far children. There's a cunning grown-up swagger to them . . . and not only are they tailored minutely of Daddy's shoes and Mother's . . . but they are marvelously constructed to withstand the constant demands of sturdy restless feet! . . . and best of all they are most reasonably priced! . . . But why am I so interested you ask? . . . why here's the reason why . . . if you're fortunate enough to wear a small size . . . even though you're properly a grown-up—you'll find that Pied Piper make marvelous shoes for sports wear! . . . I did!

Oh, it's a tempting tune he plays! . . . this Pied Piper shoe man . . . as did the Pied Piper of long ago! . . . and tiny feet keep bravely in step in fashions parade, when shod in these wonder shoes far children. There's a cunning grown-up swagger to them . . . and not only are they tailored minutely of Daddy's shoes and Mother's . . . but they are marvelously constructed to withstand the constant demands of sturdy restless feet! . . . and best of all they are most reasonably priced! . . .
