Baccalaureate For Seniors Sunday

Baccalaureate services for the seniors who graduate next week from Baldwin High School will be held Sunday evening in the high school auditorium.

Many of the Birmingham pastors are taking part in the program. Rev. R. M. Atkins is presiding. The scripture reading is to be given by Rev. D. L. Woodward, the prayer by Rev. Warner L. Forsyth, the sermon by Rev. F. E. Ligeze and the benediction by Rev. William W. Ryan.

To open the ceremony the senior class marches in clad in caps and gowns. Music for the march will be played by Mildred Green.

Several vocal selections are to be given by the high school girls' Glee club later in the program.

The singing will be directed by Miss Mae Brumstead, music instructor, and Miss Green is the accompanist. While the seniors file out at the conclusion of the service the congregation is to remain standing.

WE HEARD IT SAID BY—

Mrs. H. H. Corson, president, the American Legion Auxiliary. "The Auxiliary thanks the many boys and girls who made the annual sale of poppies here a success. They worked zealous and the money turned in will do a great deal of good for the soldiers who are invalided at Battle Creek. In particular, the Friendly Indians, under the direction of Frank Deer, did very fine work."

E. SAARINEN TAKES PRIZE FOR MODEL

Baldwin High Student Awarded Honor in Sculpturing Contest

First honors in the National Small Sculpture contest, a national competition in soap carving, with prizes given by the Proctor & Gamble company, metal soap manufacturers, went this year to E. Saarinen, High School student, the son of prominent architect Eil Saarinens of Frankfort, Ky. A cash prize of $100 accompanies the honor.

Saarinens' entry was entitled "Sorrow." He cut it, as did all other entrants, from a standard cake of white soap. His work was not able to attend the meeting in New York Tuesday, when prizes were awarded, he will, on a trip to Europe this summer, view the winner and receive the prize. The statuette is being shown at the Anderson Galleries, in New York City.

Saarinens has attracted local attention for some time. Other examples of his work are now being shown in the main hall and the art room of the school.

VOCAL STUDENTS TO GIVE RECITAL

The four vocal classes of Miss Mae Brumstead, music instructor, at Baldwin High School will give a recital in the high school auditorium, tonight.

The classes were formed in February but have advanced rapidly, according to reports. Twelve solo numbers will be given by some of the advanced music students. Because of the interest shown lately in the new type of vocal work it is expected that these recitals will fit in as a regular activity of the school.

JUNIORS GIVE 'TULIP TIME'

Dance Numbers Feature Annual Opera by Students

The annual opera given by Adams Junior High School was presented before a large audience last week at the Adams School.

The comic two act opera, "Tulip Time," was written by Geoffrey E. Morgan and Frederick G. Johnson. Mr. York D. Turcotte, school supervisor of music, directed it.

Neil Welch, B.N. Lynch, Ethel Parker, Jane McCarthy, Jack Caraborn, Virginia Lamborn, Harry Parker and Eugene Smith made up the cast. Dutch villagers, flower girls and American students composed a stock of the play.

Three novelty dance numbers were given by the Misses Wynne and Genevieve Gay. At the first and third grades, respectively. The pair are well known as accomplished dancers, having studied dancing from early childhood.

Unusually good voices composed the cast of the opera. Mrs. Parker's father is one of the Baldwin Male quartet. Neil Welch and Eugene Smith sang over the radio station WGHF, recently and Miss Lamborn's mother, Mrs. Leah G. Lamborn, is a member of the Bakerville-Lamborne studios and well known here.

Mrs. Mabel Huger, art instructor, and Merlyn Stinley, manual arts instructor, designed the stage scenery. Miss Gladys Rogers is assistant director.

SCHOOL BAND KEPT BUSY AS YEAR CLOSES

Many engagements have filled the last school weeks for the Baldwin High School band, especially when the number of their performances was associated with their previous record.

They have furnished music for many occasions, including the annual Homecoming, the athletic education pageant last Thursday at Hamilton Park, and also played at the Adams School for the benefit of the American Guild of Teachers. State and Federal teachers' conferences also gave a concert during the performance of the first Baldwin quartet.

The band is again the recipient of a new record.

12 SAFETIES FAIL TO WIN

Monroe Romps Over Baldwinites With 5-Run Margin

The Baldwin boys' net team was downed by Royal Oak 2-1 last Thursday at Barum field. Rain hindered the playing considerably.

Murray was defeated by Aldridge, 2-0. 3-6. Pollock lost to Ledbetter, 2-0. 6-6. In the doubles match, Pollock and Fowler downed Sals and Campbell, 2-0. 9-7.

Because of the rainy weather the racket players are several matches behind in their schedule. Among the matches all to be played are:

Pollock and Fowler vs. Ledbetter and Sals. 2-0. 9-7. Sals and Campbell vs. Pollock and Fowler. 2-0. 9-7. Murray vs. Aldridge. 2-0. 9-7.
