STREET FAIR DATE IS SET

Plans Announced For Annual Affair Of St. James Group

A pet parade is once again one of the outstanding features of the St. James Italian Street Fair which is to be held Saturday June 23, on west Maple avenue in front of the St. James Church. This year Mrs. Frederick W. Boynton is in charge of this event.

Manicentrants are already enlisted and all children are invited to bring their pets and join the parade also little girls with dolls and doll carriages. Mrs. Boynton said:

Fonies, rabbits, snakes as well as dogs and cats are being groomed for the event. Sarah Baker will exhibit a "horned" from Texas, supposedly a brother of the famous, long buried toad of Eastland. Some of the contestants will ride horses: Fatti Stauch and Buddie and Hermine McCormick among the riders.

The jolliest funiest clown from "downland" will lead the parade and later will turn "back" into a very human doctor from Detroit who will entertain with a health show of magic and chalk talks.

A St. James cup, presented by Leigh Lynch will go to the best race and there will be the other usual balloons, and grabs and food stands with a medley of Italian music.

The young people of the St. James Church assisted by Mrs. Harry Krull are in charge of the street dance to be held that evening on Maple avenue.

A tea given Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. M. Baker, Dorchester road, was the occasion for the discussion of final plans for the Italian street fair of the St. James Episcopal Church which is to be scheduled for June 23 this year.

Plans were made for articles for Mrs. Irwin Neff's White Elephant table and other booths arranged. This year the booths will be on both sides of west Maple avenue between the Community House and the church. This area is to be roped off and will be used as a dancing floor in the evening. The dinner will be served indoors. Those who are assisting Mr. Daker on the general fair committees are: Mrs. Charles E. Buck, Mrs. Charles Burgess, Mrs. L. N. Pyle, Dr. Harriet Hawkins, Miss Louise Peppers, Mrs. Francis C. Tom, Mrs. Frederick W. Boynton, Mrs. Warren Peace, Jr., and Mrs. Lane Bishop.

Chairmen of the booths are as follows: Mrs. Charles E. Burgess, Mrs. Robert Peebles, Mrs. Miss Janette Brown, Mrs. Miss Vallier Texas, candy; Mrs. Samuel Garber, popcorn; Mrs. Lane Bishop, aprons; Mrs. Herbert Royal, towels; Mrs. Francis F. McKinney, handkerchiefs; Mrs. George Reed, bicycle covers; Mrs. A. C. Utter, afternoon tea and tea-sets; Mrs. Harry Krull, dance; Mrs. Frank Skinner, bicycle; Mrs. Irwin Neff, white elephant; Mrs. J. J. Koura, dogger; Mrs. Milton Coulson, novelties; Mrs. John A. Gaff, baskets; Mrs. Eugene E. Smith, luncheon; Mrs. Walter Giles, dinner; Mrs. Robert Pyle, card party; Mrs. N. T. Shaw, basket goods; Mrs. Francis C. Bugby and Mrs. Harold Stuart, flowers and vegetables.

The races are in charge of: A. Morgan and the other chairman are: Mrs. R. E. Keams, doorman; Mrs. Charles Burgess, finance; Mrs. Frederick W. Boynton, pet parade; Mrs. Leigh Lynch, dinner ticket; and Mrs. R. A. Palmer, publicity.

VILLAGE HOME WEDDING SCENE

Miss Mildred Steffen Becomes Bride Of O. C. Lundy

At an attractive ceremony in the Ford Lundy home last Thursday, Miss Mildred Steffen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Steffen, of Bloomington, became the bride of O. C. Lundy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lundy, of Royal Oak. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Fairchild officiating.

The bride was attended by Sylvia Hefner, of Ohio, and Raykin Stephens, daughter of the bride's uncle, of Detroit.

DANCE FROLIC PLEASES MANY

Hundred of guests attended the two performances of the June Frolic presented Friday evening and Saturday afternoon by the pupils of Mrs. Evelyn Livingston Smith's school of dancing at the Greek Theater, Cranbrook.

The entire performance from the charming Kate Greenway under the interpretation of the Wordsworth's verse, "I wandered lonely as a cloud," showed unusual grace and appreciation of mood. The Dances, a Fair Frolic stood out as a particularly lively scene, with its numerous solo and duet group features.

The faculty of the Smith school includes Miss South, director; Miss Cynthia Hales, teacher; Miss Marian Ditch, secretary and Miss Mildred Robinson, pianist and Miss Madeleine Major, mistress of the parlor.
