

SOCIETY IN BIRMINGHAM AND THE HILLS

PUPPET SHOW PLANNED HERE

Cleveland Woman to Stage Loan Fund Benefit Exhibit At Adams
One of the most interesting performances this year at the Adams school will be a puppet show to be given by Mrs. Helen Haiman Joseph, of Cleveland, O., April 4 in the school auditorium.

Village Students Arriving Home From Schools

Faster time means a new hat to many and to others brings thoughts of the summer which soon will be at hand. But to the young men and women at schools and colleges in other cities it brings the joy of vacation. Many of the students who live in Birmingham and the Hills are on their way home for the holidays or will soon be packing their bags for a vacation with their families. The Glancy home on Fairbrook road will see the return of three of its youthful occupants. A. R. Glancy, Jr., the son, returns April 1 from Princeton. His sisters, Louise and Nora are expected home today from Mt. Vernon Seminary. They are accompanied by two friends, Miss Jean Bodick and Miss Helen Cizak of Okama, N.C.
