Life of Moses Is Studied By Pastor

"To approach the life of Moses is to be reminded that comes to one who stands for the first time at the foot of a great mountain and gazes upon its gleaming snow-capped summit.

Finds Unknown City

Robert J. Casey, author, explorer and lecturer, told ship passengers upon his arrival in New York, that in his travels through the dense jungles of Indo-China, he discovered the ruins of an immense uninhabited city.

WOMEN WHO AND TIMELY VIEWS

Women "Bosses" Declared Essential in Politics By Mrs. FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT

(Mrs. Franklin Roosevelt, of Hyde Park, New York, is the wife of Franklin D. Roosevelt, former assistant secretary of the navy and Democratic candidate for vice president in 1920.)

THE WAY OF THE WORLD

GETTING AND CONVICTING The Royal Canadian Mounted Police have long had a slogan: get you men. And they have lived up to it.

Much of the lack of efficiency among policemen and other enforcers is either created or encouraged by lack of cooperation on the part of the courts or stupidity on the part of juries.

NEW LEADERSHIP

The lack of scientific mind or good business mind in places of political leadership has held back the development of industry and education in this country.

WHITE VESTS

We all know that the country needs statesmen who are real in ability and character. We do not need these near-statesmen whose chief claims to political fame are on three things—a great white shirt, a white necktie and a white vest.

GAS-GUARDED

The Equitable Safe Deposit Co., New York, has a four-story, ten-million footed vault. It rests on rock 50 feet below street level.

WOMEN WHO AND TIMELY VIEWS

Women have been voting for ten years. But have they achieved political equality with men?

No. They go through the gesture of going to the polls; their votes are solicited by politicians and they possess the external aspect of equal rights.

With some outstanding exception, the women who have gone into politics are refused serious consideration by the men leaders.
